

Have you had a toy train serve your food? If not, you should go to the Choo-Choo Restaurant in Des Plaines. One reason to go is to eat their good food, another reason is to see the decoration & meet the workers. If you like trains go to this restaurant!

Chew, chew, crunch! That was the sound of me eating a scrumptious cheese burger & fries. The food at the Choo-Choo Restaurant is delicious. And on a hot day, I highly suggest getting their lemonade. They even have Chicago style hotdogs! My mom always eats them then gets them the next time! She loves those hotdogs. I think their food is the best!!!!

"Choo-choo!" here comes that train, & my cheese burger!! The decoration at the Choo-Choo Restaurant is like you're in a train yard. If your children like trains you can obviously count on them to entertain! My baby brother Ian sees that train and, BANG, he starts saying "choo-choo!"

My last reason is to meet the workers! They're very nice, when we went there they gave us compliments. They're always ready to serve you. I especially like it when they talk to us.

As you can see, The Choo-choo Restaurant is a great, awesome, and cool place. The food, decoration, and workers will amaze you. Maybe you should go to the Choo-choo Restaurant tomorrow night. P.S Or today!!
