What is estate administration?

You've probably heard of probate (confirmation in Scotland). That's one part of estate administration.

Estate administration is the process of sorting out a deceased person's legal and tax affairs. Everything from bank accounts, belongings and property to debts, pensions and Inheritance Tax. It can be extremely complex and is required after every death.

We are proud to be one of the UK's leading estate administration specialists, having distributed over £1 billion in inheritance.

It's a considerable amount, but there's a family just like yours behind every single estate.

So we handle every estate with the utmost care.

Steve's story

“ My auntie died very suddenly and unexpectedly in Cheshire. We live in North Devon and were faced not only with coming to terms with her death but also with the fact that the distance involved between us was a major problem.

We had no clue as to her affairs and she had a property that she had taken out an equity release policy on. To say we were somewhat overwhelmed with what we had to sort out was an understatement.

Then, however, we were put in touch with Kings Court Trust and from that day on, we didn't have to worry about a single thing.

Absolutely everything was dealt with by Kings Court Trust and their associates.

They were always on hand, whether by telephone or email, and all queries were dealt with almost immediately.

Things went smoothly with their help and it was an enormous relief to know that they were dealing with everything.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Kings Court Trust to anyone.

I cannot speak too highly of their services. ”

Arnold is in safe hands

When it comes to estate administration, we can handle everything you can think of (and all the things you might not have considered).

From self assessment tax returns and shares to pet re-homing, you'll find we've got everything in place to take care of your specific needs.

We've helped thousands of families receive their inheritance from estates big and small.

So don't worry, you and Arnold are in safe hands.

Some of the ways we can help you (all included in our fixed price):

- ✓ Completing all Inheritance Tax forms
- ✓ Applying for probate or confirmation
- ✓ Income Tax work for the year of death
- ✓ Specialist buildings insurance
- ✓ Setting up Trusts in a Will
- ✓ 24/7 online case tracking
- ✓ Postal redirection
- ✓ Registering unregistered properties
- ✓ Arranging for a pet to be re-homed
- ✓ Cancelling or transferring utilities
- ✓ Distributing funds to beneficiaries
- ✓ Producing estate accounts

And with us, everything's included in our fixed price

Legal and tax.

From applying for probate (or confirmation in Scotland) to dealing with Inheritance Tax, estate administration involves a significant amount of specialist legal and tax work. Our team of experts manage all of this work on your behalf.

We'll protect your family.

Estate administration can be complex. We take on full responsibility and liability so that you don't have to worry. That means if there's a claim on the estate, you're covered. Plus our unique insurance protects you against claims for ten years.

Dealing with property.

The family home can be the most valuable part of an estate, financially and emotionally. We will value the property and organise specialist insurance cover as standard. We can also manage all aspects of the sale on your behalf should you wish.

Paying inheritance. Quickly.

We try to make initial payments to beneficiaries quickly and regularly. You and your family will receive whatever you're entitled to as soon as possible.

All the paperwork.

Dealing with HMRC, liaising with utility providers, resolving pension enquiries. All of these tasks are an additional burden at a difficult time. We will deal with all of the paperwork and make the necessary calls, so you don't have to.

Valuing assets. Paying debts.

Over a lifetime, everyone accumulates assets and debts. As part of the estate administration process, everything has to be dealt with. We will handle everything on your behalf so that you have complete peace of mind.

Personal service. Online access.

You can check progress online any time using our case tracker, Insight.

And if you want us to, we can send updates by text and email too.

While we embrace technology, we're not bound by it. So for queries and advice, just pick up the phone.

We'll never be watching the clock and our fixed price never changes.

We look forward to helping you move on

At Kings Court Trust, we occupy a unique, privileged position. We are called upon at a sensitive time when families are still going through the stages of grief, but there is an acceptance that certain realities need to be addressed.

What can interrupt this healing process? Unnecessary stress. Anxiety. Unexpected obstacles. A gruelling or difficult estate administration experience.

We do everything in our power to make sure that this doesn't happen to the families that entrust us to take care of their estate administration.

We carry out our service professionally, proactively and properly. We pride ourselves on reducing stress and anxiety for you and your family. We keep you informed and we go the extra mile.

This is our philosophical and inspirational heartbeat and it informs everything we do at Kings Court Trust.

Every action, decision and service we offer goes some way to achieving our purpose - helping you and your family to move on.
