Rensselaer County Tourism Presents:

Downtown Troy
New York

A WALKING GUIDE TO THE BEST STOP ALONG THE HUDSON
NOTES & ACKNOWLEDGMENTS:
This walking guide represents Downtown Troy and its attractions as of July 2016. Names and addresses of the businesses listed may change without notice.

A special thank you to our sponsors whose efforts have made this project possible, and to all the participating businesses who have contributed to making Downtown Troy the best stop along the Hudson.

Zone 4 houses the marble-faced structure known as the Hart-Cluett Mansion (57 Second St.), which was constructed for the Harts and sold 60 years later to the Cluets—the family who helped give Troy the nickname, “The Collar City.” Representing the best in design and craftsmanship of the period, the building appropriately houses the main office of the Rensselaer County Historical Society.
