WELCOME FROM CHAIRMAN

To all the devoted volunteers of Wreaths Across America:

First, let me thank you for your continued support and commitment in helping Wreaths Across America expand its mission to Remember, Honor and Teach. Because of each of your efforts in 2016, nearly 1 million volunteers placed 1.2 million wreaths on the final resting places of American soldiers, sailors, airmen, Marines, Coast Guardsmen and their family members in more than 1,200 locations around the world, including such historic locations as Pearl Harbor, Valley Forge, the Pentagon and the Statue of Liberty.

Each day, in cemeteries throughout this country, family members of our veterans and active duty military members listen to the sorrowful sound of Taps played as their loved ones' caskets are lowered into the ground and American flags are folded and presented in remembrance of their service and sacrifices.

It is our commitment to not only honor those currently being buried, but also to remember those who have gone long before and who might not have family members to visit their gravesites and thank them for their service.

I have personally been the location coordinator for Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, Virginia, since 2005. I have had the privilege to meet thousands of some of the incredible and inspiring volunteers who willingly give their time and effort to ensure that all those buried at Arlington are not forgotten. It is these volunteers, and those from all of your local communities, including school and church groups; scout groups; trucking companies; veterans, associations; law enforcement agencies; corporate sponsors; devoted individuals, et al., that serve as the backbone of Wreaths Across America's mission.

Relying on the participation of volunteers is key to the success of Wreaths Across America—today and in the future. While we encourage individual creativity and initiative, we must have established standards and guidelines to ensure that the mission to Remember, Honor and Teach is paramount. Therefore, I ask that you please review the following materials and use the information provided as a basis for your future work in promoting the mission of Wreaths Across America.

Thank you for all you do. We will never forget!

Sincerely,

Wayne G. Hanson

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA STORY

“Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction.

We didn’t pass it to our children in the bloodstream.

It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children’s children what it was once like in the United States where men were free.”

—Ronald Reagan, 40th United States President (1911–2004)

Morrill Worcester, owner of Worcester Wreath Company of Harrington, Maine, was a 12-year-old paperboy for the Bangor Daily News when he won a trip to Washington, D.C. His first trip to our nation’s capital was one he would never forget, and Arlington National Cemetery made an especially indelible impression on him. This experience followed him throughout his life and successful career in business, reminding him that his good fortune was due, in large part, to the values of this nation and the veterans who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country.

In 1992, Morrill found himself with a surplus of wreaths nearing the end of the holiday season. Remembering his boyhood experience at Arlington, Worcester realized he had an opportunity to honor our country’s veterans. With the help of former Maine senator Olympia Snowe, arrangements were made for the wreaths to be placed at Arlington in one of the older sections of the cemetery – a section which had been receiving fewer visitors with each passing year.

As plans were underway, a number of other individuals and organizations stepped up to help. James Prout, owner of local trucking company Blue Bird Ranch, Inc., generously provided transportation all the way to Virginia. Volunteers from the local American Legion and VFW posts gathered with members of the community to decorate each wreath with traditional red, hand-tied bows. Members of the Maine State Society of Washington, D.C., helped to organize the wreath-laying, which included a special ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

This act of generosity became an annual tribute that went on quietly for several years each December, led by Morrill and his family until 2005, when a photo of the stones at Arlington, adorned with wreaths and covered in snow, circulated around the internet. Suddenly, the project received national attention. Thousands of requests poured in from all over the country from people wanting to participate – to emulate the Arlington wreath project at their national and state cemeteries, or to simply share their stories and thank Morrill Worcester for honoring our nation’s heroes.

Unable to donate thousands of wreaths to each state, Worcester began sending seven wreaths to every state, one for each branch of the military, and for POWs/MIAs.

In 2006, with the help of the Civil Air Patrol and other civic organizations, simultaneous wreath-laying ceremonies were held at over 150 locations around the country. The Patriot Guard Riders volunteered as escort for the wreaths going to Arlington. This began the annual “Veterans Honor Parade” that travels the East Coast in early December.

The annual trip to Arlington and the groups of volunteers eager to participate in Worcester’s simple wreath-laying event grew each year until it became clear the desire to remember and honor our country’s fallen heroes was bigger than Arlington, and bigger than this one company.

In 2007, the Worcester family, along with veterans and other groups and individuals who had helped with the annual remembrance wreath ceremony in Arlington, formed Wreaths Across America (WAA), a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, to continue and expand this effort, and support other groups around the country who wanted to do the same. The mission of the group is simple: Remember. Honor. Teach.

In 2008, over 300 locations held wreath-laying ceremonies in every state, Puerto Rico and 24 overseas cemeteries. More than 100,000 wreaths were placed on veterans’ graves. Over 60,000 volunteers participated, including members of national veterans’ organizations and the American Gold Star Mothers.

December 13, 2008, was unanimously voted by the United States Congress as National Wreaths Across America Day.

In 2011, WAA and its national network of volunteers laid 325,000 remembrance wreaths at 750 locations in the United States and beyond. WAA was able to include ceremonies at the Pearl Harbor Memorial, as well as Bunker Hill, Valley Forge and the sites of the September 11, 2001 tragedies. WAA accomplished this with help from 902 fundraising groups, corporate contributions, and donations of trucking, shipping, and thousands of helping hands.

The wreath laying is still held annually on a Saturday, each December, and has expanded to include more than 1,200 locations and over 1 million wreaths. The annual pilgrimage from Harrington, Maine to Arlington National Cemetery has become known as the world’s largest veterans’ parade, stopping at schools, monuments, veterans’ homes and communities all along the way to remind people how important it is to Remember, Honor and Teach.

BACKGROUND & FAQs

Who We Are

Wreaths Across America™ (WAA) is a national nonprofit organization founded in 2007 to continue and expand the annual wreath-laying ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery begun by Maine businessman Morrill Worcester in 1992.

- ★ 1992: First wreaths (5,000) donated by Morrill Worcester and Worcester Wreath Co.
- ★ 2005: Iconic photo of wreaths in snow became a viral sensation
- ★ 2007: Wreaths Across America formed as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization
 - Organization governed by board of directors. Day-to-day operations managed by Executive Director Karen Worcester.
- ★ 2012: 1 millionth wreath placed at Arlington National Cemetery
- ★ 2014: For the first time, every headstone at Arlington National Cemetery received a wreath – 227,000 in total.
- ★ 2016: 25th year that wreaths were placed at Arlington National Cemetery

WAA's mission – Remember, Honor, Teach – is carried out in part by coordinating wreath-laying ceremonies at Arlington, as well as at veterans' cemeteries and other locations in all 50 states and beyond.

Since its founding, the organization has expanded to include more than 1,500 local fundraising groups in all 50 states, representing more than 1,200 participating locations, along with our nation's cemetery at Arlington.

Every year since 2008, Congress proclaims a date in December as National Wreaths Across America Day. This year, it will be held on Saturday, Dec. 16, 2017.

2016 Numbers

- ★ 1.2 million remembrance wreaths were placed in total across the country – 245,000 of them at Arlington National Cemetery.
- ★ Close to a million volunteers participated at 1,228 locations nationwide, with more than 44,000 volunteers laying wreaths at Arlington National Cemetery.
- ★ More than 400 truckloads of wreaths were delivered across the country by hundreds of volunteer professional truck drivers.

What We Do

REMEMBER

- ★ WAA's annual pilgrimage from Columbia Falls, Maine to Arlington National Cemetery has become known as the world's largest veterans' parade, stopping at schools, monuments, veterans' homes and communities all along the way to remind people how important it is to Remember, Honor and Teach.
- ★ Special memorials are held at Pearl Harbor, the Pentagon and Shanksville, Pennsylvania, one of the four 9/11 tragedy locations.
- ★ The HART Ceremony (Honoring Allies and Remembering Together) is conducted each year to honor veterans of our nation's allies in ceremonies on international border-crossing bridges between Calais, Maine and St. Stephen, New Brunswick, Canada; Detroit, Michigan and Windsor, Ontario, Canada; and Sweetwater, Montana and the Alaskan/Canadian border.
- ★ WAA established the Stem to Stone tree tagging program, which allows families of fallen service members to honor their soldiers by placing their dog tags on a living balsam tree in Downeast Maine. The trees are harvested by being tipped each year to produce wreaths. When the time comes to tip trees for wreath-making, the dog tags are read aloud. The process ensures that fallen soldiers will never be forgotten.
- ★ WAA hosts statehouse ceremonies in nearly all 50 states.

HONOR

- ★ WAA conducts several programs to honor our veterans, including our popular Thanks-A-Million campaign, which distributes free thank-you cards to people all over the country to share with veterans as a simple thank-you for their service.
- ★ The organization participates in veterans' events throughout the year as well as public outreach through Veterans Day and Memorial Day programs, public service announcements, press coverage and the WAA website. WAA has a veteran liaison on staff to work with local veterans' organizations.

TEACH

- ★ WAA is committed to teaching younger generations about the value of their freedoms and the importance of honoring those who sacrificed so much to protect those freedoms. We offer learning tools, interactive media projects and opportunities for schools, 4-H clubs, Scouts and other youth groups to participate in our efforts.
- ★ A downloadable curriculum and books are available to help schoolchildren appreciate the roles our veterans played in preserving their freedoms. These materials are designed to encourage the direct involvement of local veterans.

Why do you do what you do?

We understand we have Veterans Day in the fall and Memorial Day in the spring, but our service members sacrifice their time and safety every single day of the year to preserve our freedoms.

In many homes, there is an empty seat for one who is serving or one who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country. There is no better time to express our appreciation than during the hustle and bustle of the holiday season. We hope you will join us at any of our more than 1,200 participating locations to show our veterans and their families that we will not forget. We will never forget.

Why does WAA make so many stops on its way to deliver the wreaths to Arlington?

In 2006, it was decided that instead of a quick trip to Arlington, the Patriot Guard Riders would escort the wreath trucks down the East Coast and take several days to make the trip. This would allow stops at schools, monuments, veterans' homes and communities and give the group an opportunity to promote its mission: Remember, Honor, Teach.

Why do you use live wreaths?

Wreaths Across America does not “decorate” headstones. We are honoring all veterans and active military members by placing live wreaths on the headstones of veterans. The fresh evergreens have been used for centuries as a symbol recognizing honor and as a living tribute renewed annually. We want people to see the tradition as a living memorial to veterans and their families.

What are the sources of funding for WAA?

We receive no government funding. National Wreaths Across America Day and other events are made possible by thousands of volunteers who organize local ceremonies, raise funds to sponsor wreaths and participate in the events. Morrill Worcester of Worcester Wreath Co. – the founder of WAA – continues to be a major donor of wreaths each year, but the majority of the cost for the program is paid for by individual wreath sponsors, corporate donors and volunteer truck drivers and companies.

Does WAA have a religious or political affiliation?

Wreaths Across America is not affiliated with any religion or political party. It is our mission to remember and honor every fallen military service member during the holiday season, no matter what is happening in the nation or overseas.

How can I get involved?

There are a number of ways for volunteers to get involved. Please keep in mind that there is NO COST to attend or participate in a Wreaths Across America event.

- ★ National Wreaths Across America Day
- ★ Escort of wreaths to Arlington National Cemetery (or any of the other locations featuring wreath escorts)
- ★ Statehouse Ceremony – in nearly all 50 states and at our nation's capital
- ★ HART Ceremony (Honoring Allies and Remembering Together)

- ★ Thanks-A-Million card program to thank our veterans and active military members
- ★ WAA education program – work with our downloadable materials in your local schools

You can also volunteer to have another location in your state participate in the national remembrance ceremony or you can start or work with a local group to raise funds for the wreaths for your local ceremony or for Arlington.

WAA LOCATION RESOURCES

What Is a Wreaths Across America Location?

In 2007, Wreaths Across America expanded its program to enable cemeteries all over the country to place wreaths on individual graves to emulate the Arlington Wreath Program by establishing official Wreaths Across America Locations. These locations are registered groups of volunteers who partner with veteran cemeteries all over the world and coordinate wreath-laying ceremonies on National Wreaths Across America Day. Today, WAA has more than 1,200 locations throughout the country and internationally.

Registered locations are supported by WAA headquarters and are covered by WAA event insurance.

A full list of locations is available on our website at www.wreathscrossamerica.org.

Location Coordinators

WAA volunteer location coordinators are the backbone of our organization. As a coordinator, you're responsible for organizing and conducting all aspects of your community's ceremony in December. This includes recruiting and organizing volunteers, reaching out to the community, including veterans' organizations and others with WAA experience, working with fundraising groups, communicating with local press, receiving the delivery of wreaths, facilitating the ceremony, removing wreaths after an appropriate amount of time, and staying in close contact with WAA support staff. The following pages contain helpful information to plan and execute a successful ceremony on National Wreaths Across America Day in December. Additional information and resources are available on our website.

Planning Checklist

- ★ Register your location with us by completing the Location Registration Forms found on our website at www.wreathscrossamerica.org/#locations. As a location coordinator, your contact information will be listed as the primary contact for your cemetery location on the WAA website. You will have access to your customized location page and can manage donations through there.
- ★ Reserve your location. Make sure parking is easy to find, close to the location and free (or at least validated).
- ★ Line up speakers for your event.
- ★ Begin compiling a list of individuals and groups to invite. Involve as many people in your community as possible. Not sure where to start? Reach out to local veterans' groups for suggestions. Some organizations may want to plan flyovers, processions with Patriot Guard Riders, color guards, etc. Reach out to schools and other organizations in your community. Don't be afraid to think big; you can make the ceremony as large as you wish. All we ask is that your ceremony be open to everyone and remain non-political.

One Month Before the Event:

- ★ Send out e-vites to general invitees, stakeholders and local community organizations. Websites like evite, Paperless Post, Punchbowl and Smilebox all offer user-friendly options for this. Make sure your invitations include all the details:
 - Featured speakers
 - Location
 - Time
 - Whether refreshments will be provided
 - Mail, email or hand-deliver formal letters of invitation to elected officials
- ★ Develop a list of media contacts and find out how they like to receive information (most prefer email these days, but some use online forms and others prefer fax or mail).

One Week Before the Event:

- ★ Prepare a media advisory to invite press to the event.
- ★ Prepare a pre-event press release.
- ★ Collect bios of public figures who plan to attend to include in your press kits.
- ★ Finalize your ceremony format and script. You may use our sample ceremony or modify it to fit your location. We only ask that it remain non-political and open to everyone.

One Day Before the Event:

- ★ Follow up via phone or email with journalists to whom you sent the media advisory to remind them of the event.
- ★ If you expect TV coverage, arrange for special parking for satellite trucks.

Wreaths Across America Day:

- ★ Arrive at least an hour before the event begins.
- ★ Have a dedicated person look for and direct journalists to the area in which the ceremony will be held.
- ★ Try to start the event on time. This shows respect for your guests' time and their other commitments that day. It also promotes solidarity among the hundreds of groups nationwide holding simultaneous ceremonies. The ceremony at Arlington starts at 12 p.m. EST.
- ★ Hand press kits (available at www.wreathsassamerica.org/media-center-home) out to journalists who attend. Each press kit should include:
 - Names and bios of important people in attendance, such as political or military figures
 - A Wreaths Across America fact sheet

- A Wreaths Across America fact sheet
- National press release (will be distributed to locations in early December)
- Contact information for follow ups and interview requests

After the Event:

- ★ Did someone in your community go above and beyond to make your ceremony special? Contact the WAA office – we’d love to hear your story and help you recognize their efforts.
- ★ Did something newsworthy happen? Issue a press release using the template provided in this guide and contact our PR team with questions.
- ★ Send in photos, video or other stories from your event to the WAA office at pr@wreathsassamerica.org

[Cemetery] Announced as an Official Location for the 2017 National Wreaths Across America Day

The cemetery will join the more than 1,200 participating locations across the country on Saturday, Dec. 16, 2017, to proclaim “I’m an American. Yes, I am!”

Columbia Falls, MAINE, and [City, STATE] – [Date], 2017 – National nonprofit Wreaths Across America (WAA) announced today that [LOCATION] in [City, State] has once again joined OR will be joining in the effort to support the mission to Remember, Honor, Teach, as an official location for 2017. This is the [FIRST, SECOND, THIRD, etc.,] year that the cemetery will participate in this national event.

Every December, thousands of wreaths are escorted from Columbia Falls, Maine to Arlington National Cemetery for National Wreaths Across America Day. The escort, made up of tractor trailers, public safety officials, Gold Star families and veterans, makes dozens of stops along the way at community events, support rallies and school assemblies.

During the 2016 escort, a group of enthusiastic school children met the travelling wreaths with a meaningful song. “As part of their performance, the children sang ‘I’m an American ... YES, I am!’ and every single person standing in that auditorium couldn’t help but sing along, cheering and watching in awe as these children beamed with pride,” said WAA Executive Director, Karen Worcester. “That is what being an American is all about.” It is with this in mind that this year’s theme for National Wreaths Across America Day – Saturday, Dec. 16, 2017 – is “I’m an American. Yes, I am!”

The goal for [LOCATION] is to raise enough funds to place [insert total number] remembrance wreaths on the headstones of all the local heroes laid to rest there, to ensure that the individuals who served to protect the freedoms of our country never be forgotten and to bring the community together in patriotic commemoration. “We are forever grateful for the thousands of supporters who dedicate their time and effort to fulfilling our mission on a local level,” Worcester said. “They know the value of remembering the fallen, honoring those who currently serve and teaching the next generation about the sacrifices made for our freedom every day, and without their continued support, Wreaths Across America would not exist.”

Those interested in volunteering for Wreaths Across America, either locally or at Arlington National Cemetery, are invited to visit the WAA website to learn more. National Wreaths Across America Day is a free community event open to all people.

Sample Wreaths Across America™ Ceremony

Official National Wreaths Across America Day Ceremony

Opening at 12 noon Eastern Standard Time

Good afternoon. Ladies and gentlemen, please join with me in a moment of silence to remember the fallen, the prisoners of war, the missing in action, and honor those who have served and are serving this great nation's armed services.

:30 - :60 seconds of silence recommended

Color Guard:

Please stand while we post the colors.

Color Guard, post the colors. (Where Honor Guards are present and participating, they too will come forward and place themselves on both sides of the memorial to be decorated). Location coordinator to set this up in advance.

Opening Remarks:

Thank you all for joining us here today. Right now, across the country at more than 1,200 memorial sites like this one, we are gathered as one nation to Remember, Honor and Teach. We are all proud to be Americans living in a free society made up of many people from many walks of life. The freedoms we enjoy today have not come without a price. Lying here before us and in cemeteries throughout this nation are men and women who gave their lives so that we can live in freedom and without fear. We can worship as we see fit. We can raise our children to believe as we do. We can travel from one end of this great nation to the other and not have to ask permission to go. We are free to vote for whomever we feel should be in government office, with no explanation needed. We have the right to succeed and we have the right to fail at whatever endeavor we wish to pursue.

The United States of America was founded on the ideals of freedom, justice and equality. Our nation stands as a shining beacon of liberty and freedom to the world. We thank those who gave their lives to keep us free and we shall not forget you. We shall remember. (short pause)

Today, many of you here are veterans of wars and conflicts that America has had to fight to protect the innocent and oppressed. This nation has always been the first to stand up for the freedom of people from around the world. Many of you here today have answered that call and served your country well. We are here today to say thank you and we are honored to know you.

There are many men and women serving today in all branches of the military, here at home and in places far away that most of us have never heard of. These men and women are part of the best-trained, best-equipped force in the world. We honor them and their families for the sacrifices they make each day to keep our country safe from terrorism, hatred and injustice.

Quoting our 40th president, Ronald Reagan, "Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free."

Today, we show a united front of gratitude and respect across the United States of America as we REMEMBER the fallen, HONOR those who serve and TEACH our children the value of freedom.

Wreath Laying: Color Guard, and if present, Honor Guard, will present arms at the laying of each wreath.

Now (person's name) will lay a remembrance wreath in memory of those who served and are serving in the United States Army.

Now (person's name) will lay a remembrance wreath in memory of those who served and are serving in the United States Marine Corps.

Now (person's name) will lay a remembrance wreath in memory of those who served and are serving in the United States Navy.

Now (person's name) will lay a remembrance wreath in memory of those who served and are serving in the United States Air Force.

Now (person's name) will lay a remembrance wreath in memory of those who served and are serving in the United States Coast Guard.

Now (person's name) will lay a remembrance wreath in memory of those who served and are serving in the United States Merchant Marine.

Now (person's name) will lay a remembrance wreath in honor of the 93,129 United States service members from all branches of the service whose last known status was either prisoners of war or missing in action. These individuals have never returned to their families and homes. We shall not forget you.

Note: If at all possible, an active duty service person should lay the wreath of the armed services they represent. After the last wreath is laid the Color Guard and Honor Guard will order arms.

Closing Remarks:

We encourage every volunteer here today who places a wreath on a veteran's grave to say that veteran's name aloud and take a moment to thank them for their service to our country. It's a small act that goes a long way toward keeping the memory of our veterans alive.

Remember, we are not here today to decorate graves. We are here to remember not their deaths, but their lives. Each wreath is a gift of appreciation from a grateful America.

These live balsam wreaths symbolize our honor to those who have served and are serving in the armed forces of our great nation and to their families who endure sacrifices everyday on our behalf. To our children, we want you to understand the freedoms you enjoy today have not been free but have come with a cost that someday you may have to pay yourself.

This is where the scripted ceremony ends and the leader or other designated person turns it over to the veterans groups.

Tips: Where there are high-ranking officials present (governor, state elected officials, etc) and who wish to make a short statement. This is a good time to let them speak.

Veterans' groups: Leaders, make sure you accommodate all groups that want to participate in the ceremony after the scripted ceremony. Try to lead them to keep it short and to the point.

Ending: At the conclusion, where possible, have Taps played. Retire the colors and thank everyone for coming.

Location Coordinators: As coordinators, you are in charge of everything else that takes place at this memorial event. How your Color Guard is placed and/or Honor Guard is placed is entirely up to you. Memorials throughout the country are all different and we cannot script nor do we want to script the entire ceremony. You are capable and a better judge of your command than we are. We will support you with ideas, if asked. Have fun with this project.

Additional Ideas: Before the beginning of the ceremony some groups have the participants recite the Pledge of Allegiance and play the national anthem. This is your choice to do if desired.

If you have families there that want to place wreaths on their loved one's grave, you can either flag the grave ahead of time or have some of the local groups get involved by standing by the headstone to make sure no one else places the wreath other than the family member. (All this would need to be coordinated prior to the service and the family would need to pre-register with whoever is organizing.)

You should also encourage people to only take one wreath, or two, depending on the number sponsored for your location so that everyone has a chance to lay a wreath.

If for any reason you need to skip a grave, please encourage people to take a moment and stop at the grave to pay respects and honor that veteran.

Please make sure that if you have multiple groups you recognize all of them so no one is discouraged from participating.

Sample Wreaths Across America™ Ceremony

Official Wreaths Across America Statehouse Ceremony

Opening at 12 noon Eastern Standard Time

Good afternoon. Ladies and gentlemen, please join with me in a moment of silence to remember the fallen, the prisoners of war, the missing in action, and honor those who have served and are serving this great nation's armed services.

:30 - :60 seconds of silence recommended

Color Guard:

Ladies and gentlemen, please stand while we post the colors.

Color Guard, post the colors. (Where Honor Guards are present and participating, they too will come forward and place themselves on both sides of the memorial to be decorated). Leaders will set this up in advance.

Opening Remarks:

We are gathered here today at [this location] along with every other state across the country as one nation to Remember, Honor and Teach. We are all proud to be Americans living in a free society made up of many people from many walks of life. The freedoms we enjoy today have not come without a price. In cemeteries throughout this nation are men and women who gave their lives so that we can live in freedom and without fear. We can worship as we see fit. We can raise our children to believe as we do. We can travel from one end of this great nation to the other and not have to ask permission to go. We are free to vote for whomever we feel should be in government office, with no explanation needed. We have the right to succeed and we have the right to fail at whatever endeavor we wish to pursue.

The United States of America was founded on the ideals of freedom, justice and equality. Our nation stands as a shining beacon of liberty and freedom to the world. We thank those who gave their lives to keep us free and we shall not forget you. We shall remember. (short pause)

Today, many of you here are veterans of wars and conflicts that America has had to fight to protect the innocent and oppressed. This nation has always been the first to stand up for the freedom of people from around the world. Many of you here today have answered that call and served your country well. We are here today to say thank you and we are honored to know you.

There are many men and women serving today in all branches of the military, here at home and in places far away that most of us have never heard of. These men and women are part of the best-trained, best-equipped force in the world. We honor them and their families for the sacrifices they make each day to keep our country safe from terrorism, hatred and injustice.

Quoting our 40th president, Ronald Reagan, "Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free."

Today, we show a united front of gratitude and respect across the United States of America as we REMEMBER the fallen, HONOR those who serve and TEACH our children the value of freedom.

Wreath Laying: Color Guard, and if present, Honor Guard, will present arms at the laying of the wreath.

Now (person's name) will lay a live balsam wreath in memory of those who served and are serving in the United States armed forces.

Note: If at all possible, an active duty service person should lay the wreath of the armed services they represent. After the last wreath is laid, the Color Guard and Honor Guard will order arms.

Closing Remarks:

The wreath before you represents our commitment as a united America to remember the fallen. We also want this wreath to symbolize our honor to those who have served and are serving in the armed forces of our great nation and to their families who endure sacrifices everyday on our behalf. To our children, we want you to understand the freedoms you enjoy today have not been free but have come with a cost that someday you may have to pay yourself. As a nation standing together, we can defeat terrorism, hatred and injustice.

This is where the scripted ceremony ends and the leader or other designated person turns it over to the veterans' groups.

Tips: Where there are high-ranking officials present (governor, state elected officials, etc.) who wish to make a short statement, this is a good time to let them speak.

Veterans' Groups: Leaders, make sure you accommodate all groups that want to participate in the ceremony after the scripted ceremony. Try to lead them to keep it short and to the point.

Ending: At the conclusion, where possible, have (Taps) played. Retire the colors and thank everyone for coming.

Location Coordinators: As coordinators, you are in charge of everything else that takes place at this memorial event. How your Color Guard is placed and/or Honor Guard is placed is entirely up to you. Memorials throughout the country are all different and we cannot script nor do we want to script the entire ceremony. You are capable and a better judge of your command than we are. We will support you with ideas, if asked. Have fun with this project.

Additional Ideas: Before the beginning of the ceremony, some groups have the participants recite the Pledge of Allegiance and play the national anthem. This is your choice to do if desired.

WAA FUNDRAISING RESOURCES

What Is a Wreaths Across America Fundraising Group?

Our fundraising groups help us remember and honor veterans laid to rest all over the country by raising funds to sponsor wreaths at specified locations. Groups can be volunteers who fundraise solely for Wreaths Across America or groups from other nonprofit organizations working to raise funds for their causes.

Working with fundraising groups, WAA returns $5 of every $15 wreath sponsorship raised to support a group's nonprofit organization and its ongoing work. If your group wishes to only sponsor wreaths and not receive any money back, WAA has a three-for-two program that is a perfect fit (for every two wreaths sponsored a third wreath will be placed at the location your group chooses to support). More information on our fundraising groups can be found on our website at www.wreathscrossamerica.org/fundraising.

Fundraising Group Getting Started Checklist

- ★ Register as a fundraising group online.
- ★ Download sponsorship forms from the welcome email you receive after registering.
Remember to fill in your group number and designated location to get credit for your sponsorships!
- ★ Schedule a meeting with your group/club/organization to explain the program and set a goal for the group and individuals. For example:
 - Instruct each of your members to make a list of family and friends for single (one wreath) and family sponsorships (four wreaths).
 - Research a list of local businesses (banks, stores, contractors, restaurants, funeral homes, insurance and real estate agencies, etc.).
 - Divide the list and assign group members several businesses each.
 - List larger businesses and major corporations for 25+ wreath sponsorships. Identify select members and group leadership to approach the top prospects.
- ★ Set a start date and schedule a progress meeting to check in with everyone. Giving a group deadline for completion also creates a sense of urgency and action. We recommend 30-day fundraising periods at a time, however, fundraising is encouraged all year long.
- ★ Submit collected funds and tally sheet. Within 30 business days, a check for the fundraising portion will be remitted. For example:
 - 20 group members x 20 sponsorships each = 400 sponsorships
 - 400 sponsorships x $5 per sponsorship = $2,000. Think of all your group could do with an extra $2,000!
- ★ Invite all your members (and sponsors) to participate in the annual wreath-laying event in your area.

Fundraising Ideas and Services to Help Reach Your Goals

Here are some great fundraising ideas that some of our groups have used in recent seasons. As people see the rows of wreaths upon headstones, most of the fundraising work is about sharing what a profound experience it is for volunteers to be involved.

1. Every wreath counts: We have had a number of groups find great success with setting up a sponsorship table at local Wal-Mart, Kroger's, or other high-traffic stores. Local festivals and events also provide an opportunity to inform the public about our mission and share wreath sponsorship information. We provide acknowledgment cards and an attractive display for this purpose.
2. Every dollar counts: Not everyone will be in a position to do a full wreath sponsorship. But you can use a donation bucket or even a combat boot to collect dollars and change as people come and go in high-traffic areas.
3. Every penny counts: We have had several classrooms that conducted penny drives to place wreaths for veterans in their own community. One classroom in Ohio raised funds for over 300 wreaths alone. The more people involved – even in the smallest ways – helps achieve our mission.
4. What a Difference a Day Makes: We are seeking groups and individuals who would like to participate in our 2017 campaign to cover Arlington National Cemetery called What a Difference a Day Makes in combination with our Thanks-A-Million campaign.

Helping is as easy as 1-2-3:

1. Contact Wreaths Across America for more information and or to sign up as a What a Difference a Day Makes participant: call Marcy at 877-385-9504 or email marcy@wreathsasscrossamerica.org. You will be provided with a kit to get you started once you have registered.
2. Hand out the free military thank you cards to veterans and active duty personnel during your What a Difference a Day Makes scheduled event (and all year long, seize the moment to show your appreciation by simply saying thank you).
3. Collect donations at your scheduled event and turn them in to Wreaths Across America to help sponsor wreaths for Arlington National Cemetery or one of your states participating locations.

Local Effort Underway to Support Wreaths Across America™

Volunteers to host fundraising events to ensure that all veterans at [XXX] Cemetery are honored

Columbia Falls, MAINE, and [City, STATE] – [DATE], 2017 – Local volunteers are working hard to ensure that all veterans laid to rest at [local cemetery] are honored this December on National Wreaths Across America Day. This year, the ceremony, held simultaneously across the country at more than 1,200 locations, will be on Saturday, Dec. 16, 2017. The goal: to place a live, balsam fir wreath at the headstone of every veteran buried there and spread patriotism and commemoration for the ultimate sacrifices they made for our country.

From now until November, volunteers will host various fundraisers to sponsor the [# of headstones] wreaths needed to honor every veteran at [cemetery]. [Each wreath sponsorship costs $15, with $5 going to the local fundraising group for (nonprofit organization).] OR [For every two-wreath sponsorship sold, three wreaths will be provided to (cemetery) as part of a special fundraising program developed by Wreaths Across America.]

[Bullet list of upcoming fundraising events: event, date and time.]

“Every donation and wreath sponsorship is a meaningful gift from an appreciative supporter who knows what it means to serve and sacrifice for the freedoms we all enjoy,” said Karen Worcester, executive director of Wreaths Across America. “We are so grateful to the community of [town/city] for participating in our mission to Remember, Honor and Teach.”

[OPTIONAL: INSERT LOCAL FUNDRAISING STORY. Why is the fundraising group doing this work? For example: a local veterans’ group will be coordinating the fundraising event to raise money for both WAA and a new roof for its own facility.]

National Wreaths Across America Day is a free event, open to all. For more information, to donate or to sign up to volunteer, please visit www.WreathsAcrossAmerica.org.

BRANDING GUIDELINES AND MEDIA RESOURCES

The Wreaths Across America brand elements help strengthen our organization’s recognition across many channels of outreach and communication.

Our organization brand guidelines have been designed to be easy to access and follow, and allow for a high degree of creative freedom and flexibility – all while maintaining a basic brand consistency. Wreaths Across America deeply understands and exists to support the strong emotional connection, love for America and appreciation for our military personnel and veterans that drive the efforts of many of our volunteers. Our volunteers are the core of our organization, and we strive to be as supportive, accessible and helpful to them as we can.

Logo

The Wreaths Across America master logo is our most iconic image and is very important to the WAA brand. The three wreathed gravestones above the logotype are inscribed with our mission to Remember, Honor, Teach. In one iconic image, our logo shows a quick visual of what our organization is all about.

The full-color master logo should be used whenever possible on WAA branded material. (Where color, space or proportional constraints make the use of the master logo impossible, other variations are discussed and available below.)

Do’s and Don’ts

- DO:
- Use the full-color master logo whenever possible
 - Sparingly use the logo variations – only use if required by design or production constraints
 - Use the centered horizontal version only when it can be centered in a layout, otherwise, use the horizontal version
- DO NOT:
- Use the logo on top of a busy, multi-colored background that would make it difficult to read

Media Policy

Wreaths Across America’s mission to Remember, Honor and Teach has been taken up by eager groups and individuals all through the country and beyond. We are humbled and grateful for the response we have received, and at the rate of growth we have experienced as we help accommodate people’s willingness to help.

At the same time, we have a responsibility to protect the principles and core values this organization was founded on, and we must ensure that our message is not distorted, corrupted or used in any way that could unintentionally hurt our ability to achieve our mission. Failing to do this could put all our work at risk. We must remember that above all, our work is about veterans, men and women in the armed forces, and military families. Our work is not about religion, a political party or agenda, or any group or affiliation.

Our goal is a consistent and positive message that helps educate the public about the importance of honoring the memories of all who sacrificed their time, their family, their health, and often their lives, to protect the freedoms we enjoy.

Our media policy, which relates to all board members, groups and location coordinators, is the following:

1. The executive director of Wreaths Across America is the official spokesperson of the organization.
2. The use of the Wreaths Across America™ name or likeness on any printed or electronic form of communication by anyone other than a registered group or location coordinator is prohibited.
3. Groups and location coordinators will use press release templates provided in this handbook. If WAA is mentioned in any other press releases, press kits, special articles, guest columns, etc., prepared in advance, they must be approved by WAA headquarters before they are distributed and/or published.
4. When working directly with the media (such as in interviews), groups and location leaders may speak OF Wreaths Across America, but not speak FOR it. Comments, quotes and other official information will be provided for you or the media by WAA if requested.

No board member, group or location coordinator may use the letterhead, logo or name of Wreaths Across America to give an implicit or explicit impression that they are employed by or officially represent Wreaths Across America. Board members may represent Wreaths Across America with permission from the executive director.

2017 CAMPAIGNS AND SPECIAL EVENTS

2017 National Theme: "I am an American ... Yes, I am!"

The inspiration for the 2017 theme is a song by Maine-based singer/songwriter Rick Charette. But it was when the words were sung by a group of enthusiastic school children at Kennebunk Elementary School during a stop on the 2016 escort of wreaths to Arlington that it took on new meaning for the organization.

Though it was a snow day for the school, many children still came in to perform for the escort. As part of their performance, the children sang 'I'm an American...YES, I am!' and every single person in the auditorium couldn't help but sing along, cheering and watching in awe as these children beamed with pride.

The song, which entwines patriotism and acceptance of differences together, became a favorite of the 2016 Wreaths Across America escort, which included many American Gold Star Mothers, Blue Star families, veterans and volunteers. The group was touched and inspired by the spirited performance. After their visit, the escort participants found themselves singing the words often throughout their weeklong trip down the east coast to Arlington National Cemetery.

Rick Charette wrote "I'm an American" in 2002 to help kids appreciate the sacrifices women and men have made in protecting the American freedoms that we all enjoy. The inspiration for the song came from his own personal feelings on what it means to be American.

"When we come together to place wreaths, there are people from the left and the right, it doesn't matter your faith or your politics. We are there as Americans," said Karen Worcester, executive director, WAA. "Our mission welcomes anyone to join us in remembering those who gave their lives for our freedom, including our freedom to be different from one another. And now, more than ever, we want to help people find common ground with one another by supporting our military and their families, Remembering the fallen, Honoring those who serve and Teaching the next generation the true meaning of freedom."

Here are the words to "I'm an American" by Rick Charette. Sheet music is available if you'd like to work with local youth groups or schools to teach the song to children.

I'm an American. Yes I am.
I love my country. I love my land.
With you and me together, we each play a part.
We can make a difference with love in our hearts.

We are many. We are one.
We are shining in the sun.
We're united standing tall.
With liberty and justice for all.
I'm an American. Yes I am.
I hold the world's future here in my hands.
Gonna sing and shout it! It's great to be free.
Every single person has dignity.

I'm an American. Yes I am.
I promise that I will do what I can.
I'll stand up for freedom. Live my life without fear
Going to make a better world, I know we'll persevere.

Thanks-A-Million Campaign

In May of 2010, in honor of National Military Appreciation Month, Wreaths Across America™ set a goal of personally thanking 500,000 veterans, active duty service members and their families. We called on the Civil Air Patrol along with our many other active civic groups and volunteers to help distribute veteran appreciation thank-you cards. The idea was to encourage people to give a thank-you card to military personnel, veterans or their families. In a very short time, over 400,000 cards were distributed.

The reaction was so great, we established our Thanks-A-Million Campaign. The card campaign has encouraged the simple yet powerful act of simply saying thank you to a veteran. These cards can be ordered from our website and are free.

To show you an example of how powerful this can be, we received the following note, which we have reprinted courtesy of Michael Pellerin of the Civil Air Patrol Maine Wing:

Regarding presenting a veteran with one of our Wreaths Across America™ cards, I would like to share a special moment I experienced today with you. I went to the Winslow McDonald's this morning for a bite to eat. There sat this older gentleman that I have seen there many times before. He sits at a particular table, clearly is all by himself, and always follows a particular regimen as to what he orders and how much he orders. He is very quiet but a very well spoken gentleman with a resemblance to the actor Walter Brimley. He very proudly wears a Vietnam Veteran cap presented to him years ago by the local VFW. It has an assortment of well earned ribbons on it including the National Service, Distinguished Service, Purple Heart, and a few other awards.

“I approached him and said ‘Excuse me sir, I am with the Civil Air Patrol, however I am not in uniform today but rather in my gardening clothes.’ He chuckled and said hi. I presented him with a card and thanked him for his service to our country. He beamed with pride and thanked me. As I left, he read the card, a tear running down his cheek, kissed the card, and carefully put it in his pocket. I truly believe I made his day. That’s what it is all about, right? It brought a tear to my eyes as well.”

It is not the card or the wreath that matters as much as the symbolic gesture of letting our veterans (and their families) know that: We honor your service, we remember your sacrifice, and we will teach others to never forget.

Statehouse Ceremonies

Each year since 2007, location leaders and volunteers have also participated in wreath-laying ceremonies conducted on the Monday before National Wreaths Across America™ Day, at state capitols in all 50 states and in Washington, D.C. The statehouse ceremonies promote a week long celebration of America's veterans and their service to our country with a particular focus on family during the holidays.

Volunteers partner to conduct the WAA statehouse Ceremony each year. Ceremonies begin at 11:30 a.m. with the actual wreath-laying ceremony taking place at 12 noon EST. Dignitaries and special guests are invited to speak in honor of our veterans and active military. The wreath-laying ceremonies are non-political and non-denominational and all groups are invited to attend.

For more information about your statehouse ceremony, call the WAA office.

World's Largest Veterans' Parade

In 2006 when internet stories fueled attention for the WAA project, Morrill Worcester was contacted by the Patriot Guard Riders who generously offered their help with the project. It was decided that instead of a quick trip to Arlington, the PGR would escort the wreath trucks down the East Coast and take several days to make the trip. This would allow stops at schools, monuments, veterans' homes and communities, and give the group an opportunity to promote their mission: Remember-Honor and Teach. This "parade" of truckers, supporters and well-wishers has become an annual event and teaching opportunity for WAA and a valued part of the Arlington project.

The state of Maine assigns two state troopers and patrol cars to join the escort all the way to Arlington. Each community that we travel through turns out with emergency vehicles that join us as we go through their vicinity. The amount of support shown for the heroes we journey to honor is truly inspiring.

It has become an important and powerful annual experience. Each year, many towns request to become stops along the parade. The caravan has grown to include veterans, Patriot Guard Riders, other motorcycle groups Civil Air Patrol members all making the pilgrimage to Arlington.

In 2009, the parade was honored to be joined by a group of American Gold Star Mothers and a Dad who raised awareness of our important work by sharing their stories.

The convoy is now emulated all over the country as communities usher wreaths to their ceremonies.

We post our Arlington project schedule on our website, and you can track the parade's status live on Facebook.

We are only able to include a few parade stops during the trip to Arlington. We require that events at the stops abide by our Public Relations Policy, have no political agenda, and are conducted in a manner consistent with our mission and values. Any use of the WAA name without permission is prohibited.

HART Ceremony (Honoring Allies and Remembering Together)

Held on the first Saturday of December

The HART (Honoring Allies and Remembering Together) Ceremony was organized to recognize the service of all veterans, including young men and women from Canada who are serving or served in the U.S. military.

Members of several national organizations gather on Ferry Point International Bridge between Calais, Maine and St. Stephen, New Brunswick, and the Ambassador Bridge between Detroit, Michigan and Windsor, Ontario, Canada to place wreaths in honor of the service and sacrifice of veterans between the allied nations.

The wreath-laying ceremony is sponsored by Wreaths Across America with a mission to Remember, Honor and Teach about the sacrifice of our veterans and their families. The U.S.-based organization and partners also provide wreaths to our Canadian allies for placement at the Cenotaph Memorial Monument in St. Stephen.

Ceremony participants include Civil Air Patrol (auxiliary of the United States Air Force), the Cadets Canada (the Department of Defense), the American Gold Star Mothers, the Canadian Mothers of the Memorial Cross and Silver Cross, and dignitaries on behalf of both nations.

The border wreath-laying event kicks off a full week of Wreaths Across America events around the country, culminating with the wreath-laying ceremonies to honor veterans at over 400 participating locations nationwide, including 24 overseas veterans' cemeteries.

With the help of the Civil Air Patrol, we hope to expand the HART Ceremony to include a border crossing in Michigan in 2010.

For more information on the HART program, please contact the Wreaths Across America office at 207-483-2039.
