

HIKE THE TRAIL TO HIGH TEST SCORES

Vogel Prep
Your Path to Success

At Vogel Prep, our goal is to make summer memorable. Our flexible, personally tailored tutoring services provide students with the environment, resources, and attention he or she needs to make this season a productive one. Summer break is the ideal window in which to develop new skills and sharpen existing ones. With course offerings such as Computer Programming (Coding), Essay Writing, Public Speaking, Study Skills, AP class preparation, PSAT/SAT and ACT prep, and many more, students can hone in on academic challenges and enjoy direct results.

We've worked alongside countless students, and no two are quite alike. At Vogel Prep, we understand that learning styles and personal goals vary, so no matter the needs or interests of a student, our tutor matching process provides a great fit. Every one of our tutors holds an advanced degree—either a Master's or PhD—and years of professional teaching experience as well. Our tutors will work alongside your student to develop custom-made strategies to boost skills, scores, and lasting follow-through.

In Arizona, summertime can mean a lot of travel is in store. To best suit your seasonal schedule, Vogel Prep offers one-on-one tutoring sessions, in addition to regularly occurring pre-scheduled courses that are ready to join. Our 1- to 2-week intensive courses usually provide exceptional results without a cumbersome time commitment. We value quality over quantity, so our tutoring services focus on personalized study strategies that target academic weak spots through thoughtful and detailed methods. With just 24 hours of dedicated time within our SAT tutoring regimen, students typically expect a score increase of 150 to 200 points. Those prepping for the ACT accomplish expect similar results on average, with scores leaping 4 to 6 points or more. At Vogel Prep, we study smarter, leaving ample time and energy for students to enjoy the rest of Arizona's fun summertime activities.

This summer, make time to get ahead. With a dedicated and experienced staff of educators and an innovative approach to study strategy, Vogel Prep can take your summer to the next level, with results that will resonate in the school year to come.

COLLEGE APPLICATION ESSAY WRITING SEMINAR

$600*

College Admissions Series (3-6 Students)

Along with grades and ACT/SAT scores, the college applications essay is an important way to separate yourself from the many other college-bound applicants. A good essay will help your student's application stand out from the thousands that colleges receive. Vogel Prep's seminar in College Essay Writing is a hands-on way to master the applications essay. The course covers the essential elements of writing a successful college essay from scratch, finishing the seminar with a sound essay draft. During the four days we will discuss strategies for translating personal experiences and aspirations into a specific and engaging essay.

ACT vs. SAT COMPARISON TEST

FREE

Which test is right for your student?

All colleges in America now accept either ACT or SAT. In fact, some colleges accept ACT results as a replacement for SAT and SAT Subject Tests. Which test a student should take is a critical and individual decision. In truth, both tests contain at least some elements of all of these skills. Not sure which test to take? Take our ACT vs. SAT Comparison Test to find out which test is best for you. Visit www.vogelprep.com/assessment-schedule to see available dates.

MINDPRINT U

$550[†]

Success Series (3-6 Students)

Every student has cognitive patterns that are unique as their fingerprints, but unlike fingerprints, those patterns impact a student's academic success. MindPrint is a scientifically-valid, computer based assessment that measures ten critical skills in the cognitive areas of Speed, Executive Functioning, Complex Reasoning and Memory. The assessment generates a MindPrint Report that will provide strengths and weaknesses for each student. MindPrint U provides access, expertise and training on how to use a custom Toolbox and Action Plan based on each student's profile. This program is suitable for all students that have taken a MindPrint assessment and would like to work on their personal development program. Our goal is to help each student understand and develop their unique cognitive gifts and opportunities. Student's with all academic backgrounds from struggling to gifted or somewhere in between can benefit from this program. The class will provide a comprehensive road map for each student's success in various academic subjects. Although most of the work will be personalized, sharing with other's will widen student's understanding of their own cognitive maps. Please bring your laptop.

Choose U-MSU (Grades 6-8) or U-HSU (Grades 9-12).
