A “Deemed Liquidation Event” shall be deemed to be occasioned by, or to include, (i) the acquisition of the Company by another entity by means of any transaction or series of related transactions to which the Company is party (including, without limitation, any stock acquisition, reorganization, merger or consolidation but excluding any sale of stock for capital raising purposes) other than a transaction or series of transactions in which the holders of the voting securities of the Company outstanding immediately prior to such transaction retain, immediately after such transaction or series of transactions, as a result of shares in the Company held by such holders prior to such transaction, at least a majority of the total voting power represented by the outstanding voting securities of the Company or such other surviving or resulting entity (or if the Company or such other surviving or resulting entity is a wholly—owned subsidiary immediately following such acquisition, its parent); (ii) a sale, exclusive license, transfer, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole by means of any transaction or series of related transactions, except where such sale, exclusive license, transfer, lease other disposition is to a wholly—owned subsidiary of the Company; or (iii) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary.

(b) In the event a Sale of the Company is approved by the Company's board of directors and by the vote required to achieve majority approval by the outstanding shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (as defined in, and voting as provided in, the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation), voting together as a single class (the “Requisite Parties”), the Investor hereby agrees with respect to the Securities and the voting rights of the Investor, if any:

- (iv) to execute and deliver all related documentation and take such other action in support of the Sale of the Company as shall reasonably be requested by the Company or the Requisite Parties;
- (v) if the Sale of the Company is structured as a stock sale, to sell the same proportion of the Securities as is being sold by the Requisite Parties, and on the same terms and conditions as the Requisite Parties;
- (vi) not to deposit, and to cause the Subscriber's affiliates not to deposit the Securities owned by the Subscriber affiliate in a voting trust or subject the Securities to any arrangement or agreement with respect to the voting of the Securities, unless specifically requested to do so by the acquirer in connection with the Sale of the Company; and
- (vii) if the consideration to be paid in exchange for the Securities pursuant to this Section 5 includes any securities and due receipt thereof by the Subscriber would require under applicable law (i) the registration or qualification of such securities or of any person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities or (ii) the provision to the Subscriber of any information other than such information as a prudent issuer would generally furnish in an offering made solely to "accredited investors" as defined in Regulation D promulgated under the Act, the Company may cause to be paid to the Subscriber in lieu thereof, against surrender of the Securities which would have otherwise been sold by the Subscriber, an amount in cash equal to the fair value (as determined in good faith by the Company) of the securities which the Subscriber would otherwise receive as of the date of the issuance of such securities in exchange for the Securities.

6. Indemnity. The representations, warranties and covenants made by the Subscriber herein shall survive the Termination Date of this Agreement. The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its respective officers, directors and affiliates, and each other person, if any, who controls the Company within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever (including, but not limited to, any and all reasonable attorneys' fees, including attorneys' fees on appeal) and expenses reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any false representation or warranty or breach of failure by the Subscriber to comply with any covenant or agreement made by the Subscriber herein or in any other document furnished by the Subscriber to any of the foregoing in connection with this transaction.
