

HERALD

April 16, 2017
Easter Sunday

On behalf of the family of Bethany Lutheran Church & School, we welcome our members and our guests in the name of Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior. If you are a visitor, we ask you to fill out the guest registration card in the pew. We also invite you to stop by our welcome center in the Narthex for a gift and more information about our church.

Freedom From Tyranny by Pastor Clemmer

“²⁵For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet. ²⁶The last enemy to be destroyed is death” (1 Corinthians 15:25-26).

Our Lord speaks of death as the enemy. As our enemy, death often rules over us, controlling us, dictating our actions like an oppressive tyrant.

We often think of the tyranny of death as limited to the hospitals, caskets, and cemeteries, but death’s chains drag behind us more than we realize.

Our striving for health is often little more than a desperate attempt to flee from death. The spandex laden treadmills can’t outrun the chains—when it’s your time, it’s your time. The organic fad diets, vitamin supplements, light-beer, and sunscreen can’t cut you free from the chains—they only lengthen them. Driving the entire health industry, one might argue, is the fear of death. We’ll pay whatever it takes to make another step from the tyrant—but the chains just drag behind us. The fact is, we fear death. Our life is our god—as we fear losing it more than anything.

The joy of the Christian is the Easter proclamation that Jesus has freed you from the tyrant: “Death is swallowed up in victory.” ⁵⁵ ‘O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?’ ⁵⁶ The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷ But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Corinthians 15:54b-57).

The oppressive tyrant of death has been overcome by our Lord’s death and resurrection. Death sank its venomous teeth into Jesus instead of you and your children—and those teeth were ripped out with that bite. The tyrant can now only gum at you. You need not fear him any longer.

This is why our Lord speaks of death as sleep. We close our eyes in death only to open them again in paradise with Him and those saints who have gone before us. We should fear death only as much as we fear our own beds. Death is now a rest from the rigor of this life—it’s not eternal for those in Christ. As the tombstones proclaim, “Rest in peace,” they proclaim death as a momentary sleep.

Jesus has burst open the tomb and broken the chains of death—so death no longer controls you. In our sin, fear of death and allegiance to the tyrant often creep back in. When they do, you can sense the panic they bring to those in chains. But not for you—for Christ is risen, alleluia!

Death does not control you—your life is not your god, for you are in Jesus. You have died with him in baptism and now live in Him. No matter the storm, the diagnosis, or the tragedy—you need not fear death. Death has been overcome and that conquered tyrant cannot rip you out of the nail-scarred hands of Jesus. May this be our joy and our peace this Easter and every day.

Bible Studies at Bethany

Our Feature Bible Study in the Gym

Receiving the Word with Joy

This class will begin April 23 at 10 a.m.

St. Paul commends the church in Thessalonica for receiving the Word with the joy of the Holy Spirit (1 Thess. 1:6). Each week, we hear the readings of the Scripture in the Divine Service, but maybe didn't get to reflect upon them and study them as thoroughly as we'd like. This class will give you more opportunity to slow down and "inwardly digest" the Scriptures read in church that Sunday, that you would be filled with the Lord's comfort and joy throughout your week. This class will be taught by Pastor Clemmer.

Adult Instruction Class

If you're interested in joining Bethany or learning more about the Lutheran faith contact Pastor Schumacher at sschumacher@bethanylcs.org or Pastor Clemmer at sclammer@bethanylcs.org or call 630-355-2198. This class meets each Sunday in the Board Room.

Sunday School

All classes meet each week at 10 a.m. in our school wing and grade levels are marked on the doorways. No pre-registration is necessary.

Ladies Wednesday Morning Lifelight

The Lifelight Ladies have begun the study of 1 & 2 Chronicles. We meet from 9 to 11 a.m. Wednesday mornings. Books are available in the church office. All women are welcome. Contact Karen Perry (630-904-1043 or ksperry62@gmail.com) with any questions.

Evening Lifelight

The Thursday Evening Lifelight Bible Study meets with Pastor one week and in a home the next. We are studying Ruth and Esther. For more information, please call the church office.

Saturday AM Men's Bible Breakfast

All men of Bethany are invited to the Men's Bible Breakfast which meets on the first and third Saturday of each month from 7:30 to 9 a.m. Our theme continues with 1 Corinthians.
