SEASON'S GREETINGS Edie Parker's new Holiday collection celebrates this month of festivities with a nod to the pleasantries used in spreading the season's cheer. Founder and designer Brett Heyman, who's known for her playful handbags adorned with cheeky words and whimsical designs—think Chillax written in glittery letters and neon cat paws—emblazons the colorful acrylic box clutches with Jingle, Cheers, Joy, and the double-entendre Ho. Thankfully, the line, which also includes silver and gold mesh purses, doesn't eliminate chic when paying homage to the spirit of merriment (we're looking at you, Christmas sweaters). Case in point: Happy, seen here, is a sparkingly fitting and fabulous accessory to have in hand (along with the requisite glass of Champagne) to ring in 2016. —Sabar Khan
