Mom Made Foods nutritious frozen meals and snacks give parents a guilt-free, convenient way to feed kids foods that they love and are good for them. Using USDA-certified organic and antibiotic-free ingredients, Mom Made Foods provides families with healthy versions of meatballs, macaroni and cheese, spaghetti and other kid-friendly favorites. Mom Made products also contain nutritious, vitamin-rich vegetables such as cauliflower, sweet potatoes and butternut squash.

"We want parents all over the country to be able to feed their kids better. We're excited to be partnering with Kroger, one of the nation's largest retailers, to help us in achieving this mission," added company founder and CEO Heather Stouffer.

Mom Made product lines are flash frozen to preserve flavor, nutrients, color and natural texture. They feature antibiotic-free meats, no preservatives, no trans fats, and no artificial colors, and they are significantly lower in sodium than their conventional counterparts. All Mom Made products are made in the USA.
