

Leadership Fairytale

1/20/21 Inauguration Day forward to a New American Frontier!

Joe & Kamala were quick to get up on top of the job. Joe's experience & warm demeanor would soon start to have impact on the tenor of American Affairs as the new Administration moved on to address the most urgent of many emergencies with deliberated good intent.

Nevertheless, here, having been so enthralled in this Real Revolutionary Fairytale, it remains ever difficult for me to believe we had defended against clearly maligned intent men, who risked all & still not speaking like retreating; despite having failed in the elections & usurpation of America, just weeks ago.

We still expect, that those with so much baggage, executing a well orchestrated progressive dismantling of American Institutions & Society, have no intention to stop: Not of an ilk to let their weakened prey reemerge & rebuild. Love all euphoria, but just can't get this out of my mind!

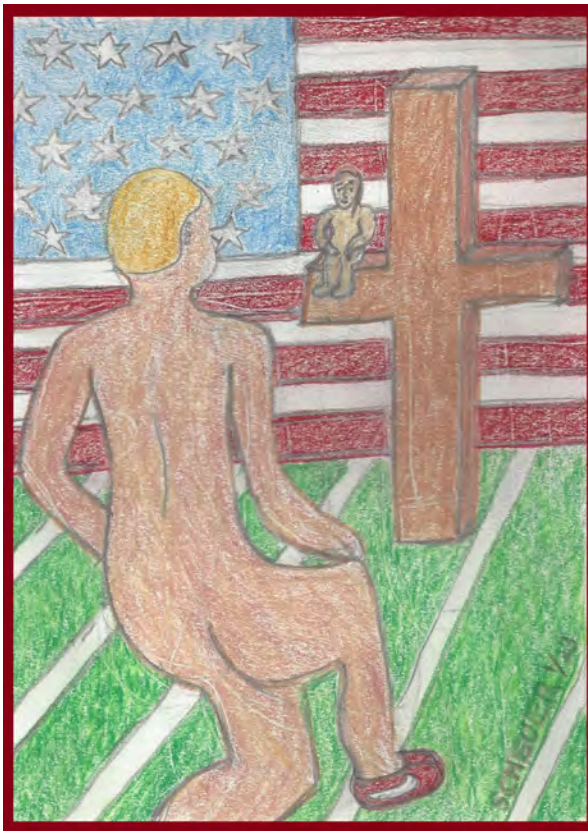

The Impeachment Trial was rushing ahead: It sure seemed it was preordained to never be a decisive defensive statement. In Congressional #RepRep public nonsense, it was increasingly clear the GOP Crew's direction had not waivered one iota.

Inauguration to Presidents Day....

End Game 1/11

Of course, as an objective optimist, we held hope & saw "17" & Angels appear to temper our tendency to seeing only an inevitable dark American short-term horizon.

Kneeling Nike Man 1/21

Bobbles 2/1

With days of National Celebration in past employed by #TheEnemy to initiate new front assaults & with World Cup Ball, long regularly appearing in our Fairytale Designs; the Sports Championship Games concerned my mind & then Valentine's Day morphed to #VDay and President's day just a day away... & how we can get carried away!

This drawing done after the Game. Was it interception or TD? That slicing angle & egg shape kept reappearing & was concerning to somewhat superstitious me! The pious January Nike Guy made me dig deeper into what may be his meaning?

Nike (mythology)

In ancient Greek civilization, Nike (/ˈnaɪkiː/; Ancient Greek: Νίκη, lit. 'victory', ancient: [nīːkɛː], modern:[ˈnici]) was a goddess who personified victory. Her Roman equivalent was Victoria.

The story of the Chicken & Egg! The first egg hatched was on 1/1: Laid by Zeus, not Taj Mahal. It obviously was a remarkable coincidence to suspicious me! Amid turmoil toward impeachment, found a cracked frozen Blue Egg, of Giza, & it became a design. It all was still so #T-troubling!

“Devil’s Pass” done for/on Valentine’s Day was another of those strange phenomenon pictures which hangs any which way & that loves to play in MS Paint!

Claims of Cancel Culture assault was charged by Rep. Jordan & he asked to open a discussion over it! So, I spent that Sunday writing a tweet in reply to JJ. As always, he is just a lot of hot air, so there was no ensuing discussion.

Frankly JJ, if you pass by here, you should know, that "Cancel Culture" defines the word "Hoax".

JJ,
You make a good point:
We should air & discuss #CancelCulture & yr definition & furtherance of the #T-term.

Having lived as an American these past yrs, those in which we witnessed you & America morph frm "normal" doggin' dog culture to a more rabid /1

w. #RealRevolutionaries.

So JJ, you defining those who seek to muffle speech that has been irrefutably proven of #IllWill, as awol zealots seeking to "#CancelCulture" is diametrically opposed to #Reality. These actors are #UpholdingCulture & are #RealPatriots /17

They're way more measured & appropriate than hound dogs living locker room fantastic fantasies.
JJ, w. this you must certainly agree?

Happy #PresidentsDay to All, including those who still buy into JJ's fantasy land.

Good Men, Uncle Jim

February 17

Late January my cousin reached out seeking uplifting content for a video card from Uncle Jim's Fans for his 90th birthday on 2/1: His spirit had taken a turn for the worse, facing late life challenges. A top cardiologist/researcher, hospital administrator, professor who served America constructively over his long, active life: He passed yesterday 2/17.

Thoughts/image building for a couple of days; concerning Markets/Wealth Distribution; using some new found old dry pastel pencils, this colorful design blossomed. Soon after the picture done, I learned Jim had decided his end. It became this passionate mystical picture

Made me think of Good Men vs. thugs running rampant deterring American Directions.

Found some old sketch books in the attic in the morning; always a walk back souvenir of how we got here.

The Sketch Books

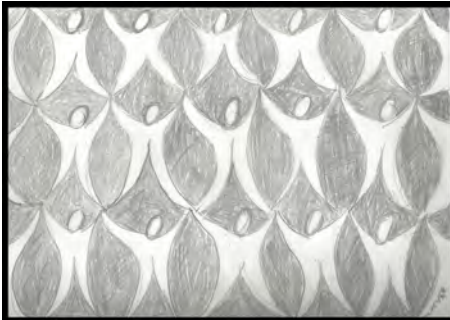

Some may realize, this Leadership Fairytale did not arise with #T descending the escalator. Cultural Corruption been going on for quite some time & we have captured it in pictures over the years!

As I looked through old sketches, I fascinated in early color pencil drawings from the 90's & revisited the early 2000's era.

Here is a smattering of these for your review & pleasure.

Enjoy!

In this interim, from Feb-End March, it was difficult to discern where the new assaults would come & imagine how these maligned guys would re-seize the narrative & controls in an overthrow. Each new day, the astute Joe/Kamala Show walked US back & lifted US up, to again see better horizons; it was a pleasant surprise! Meanwhile, sane politicos faced a #RepRep #RealClownShow: Unfathomable, incredible, rising ever more clearly, #BlatantTraitors. #NecessaryRestraint, #RestraintNecessary...but our noble elders still choose to take it slow. What don't we know? How damaging was #TheHack? We know financially we've been crippled. How compromised is the Military? It is all so hard to imagine & frankly, to see & live this is incredible: Indelible!

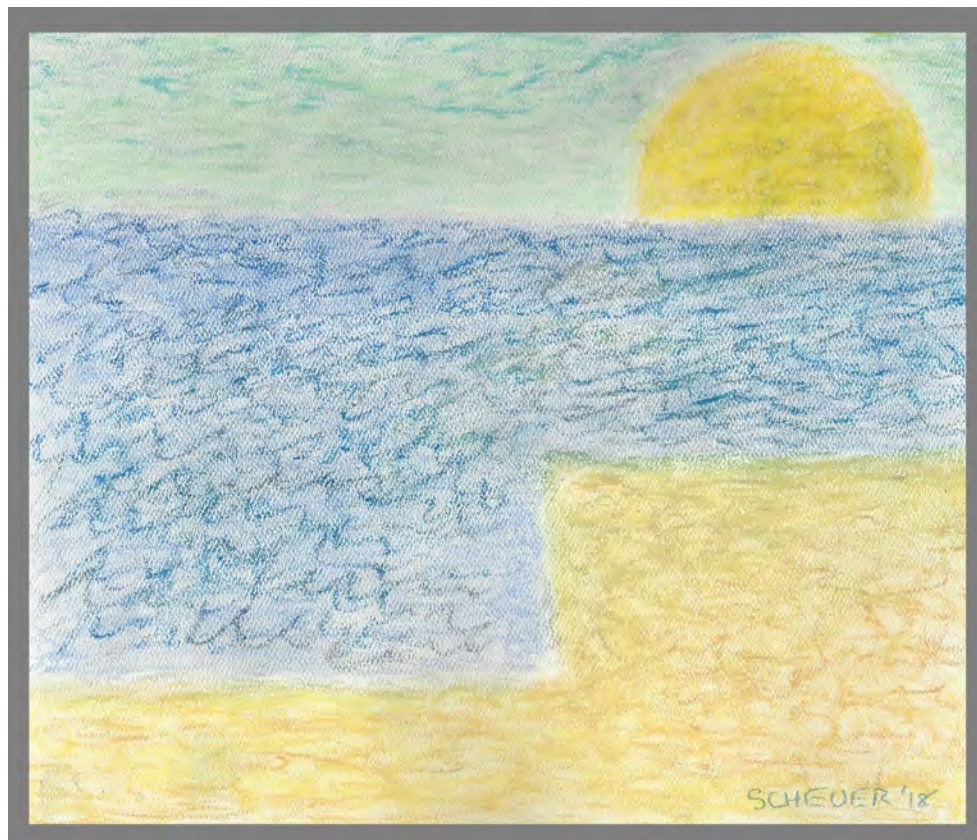

Our Fears Remained:

There are two bombs

NY Target was a great worry

Roust & Oust only way out

We Must Defend

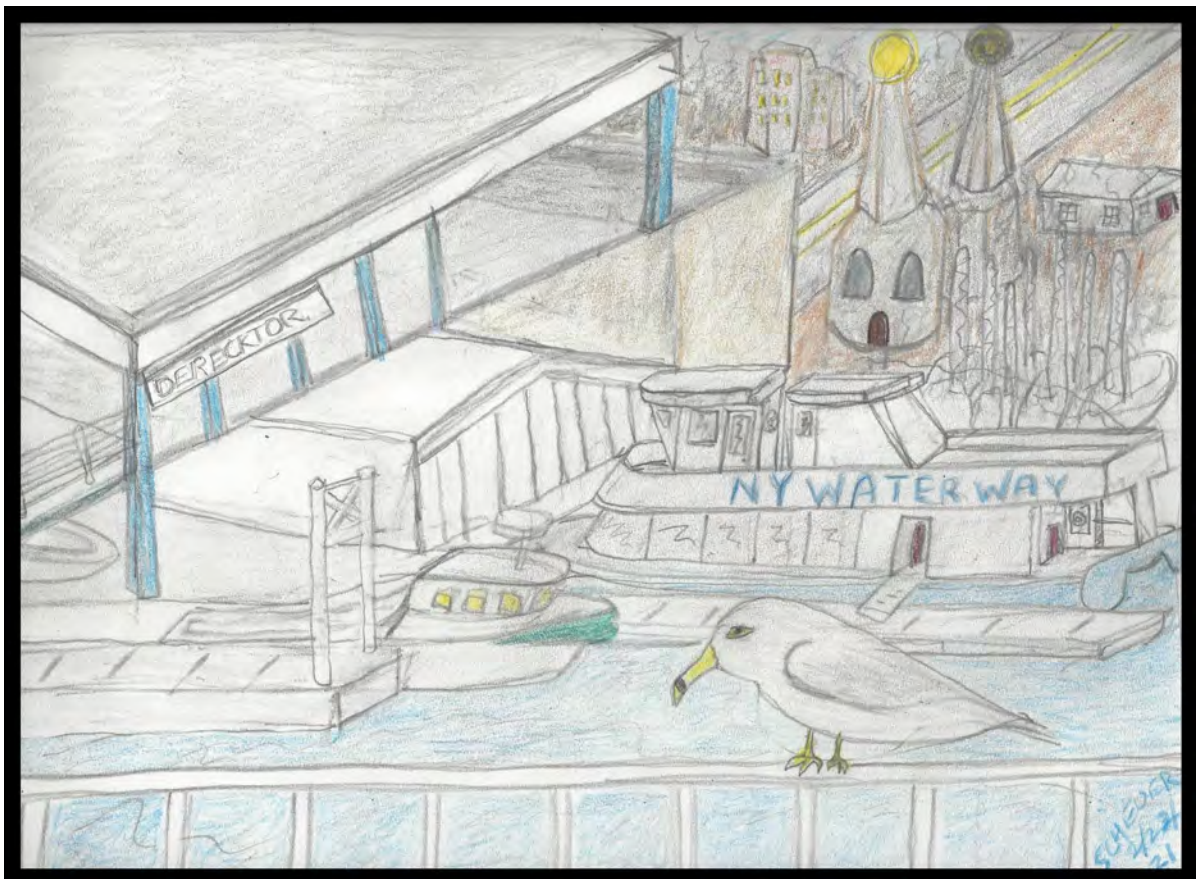

Late February - March 2021

The transition, calming, yet the #CounterCulture divisive narrative amplifies. With Joe & Kamala hitting their stride & America sighing relief as each remediating measure passes: Republicans forced, again & again to deny bills America clearly needed.

As we have long feared here, they knew this was a game of keep, for the whole kit and caboodle!

Hold those #MagaHats!

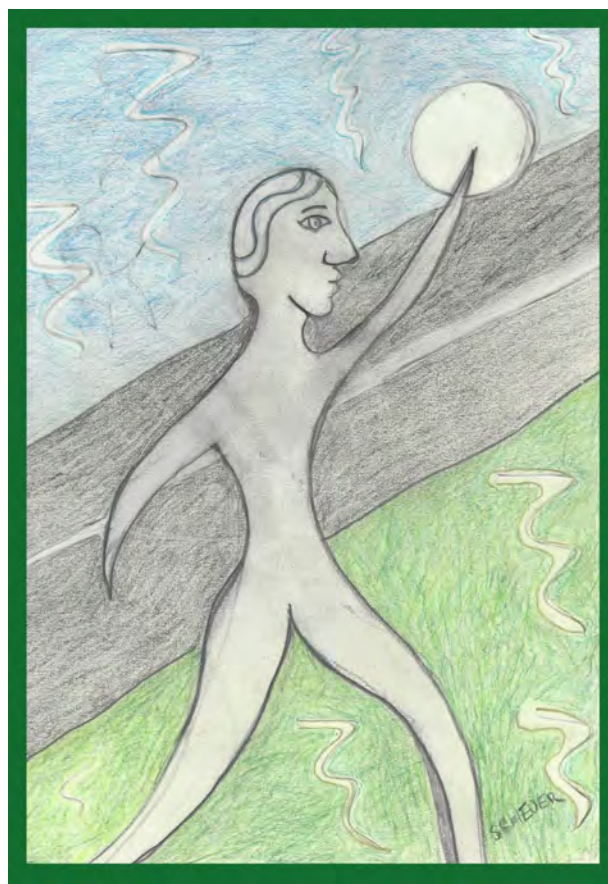

At the harbor those winter days, questioning whether our worst fears had been allayed?

But no, this twisted vision "NY Waterway" bodes ill. The Gull of impending change.

March 2021—Easter

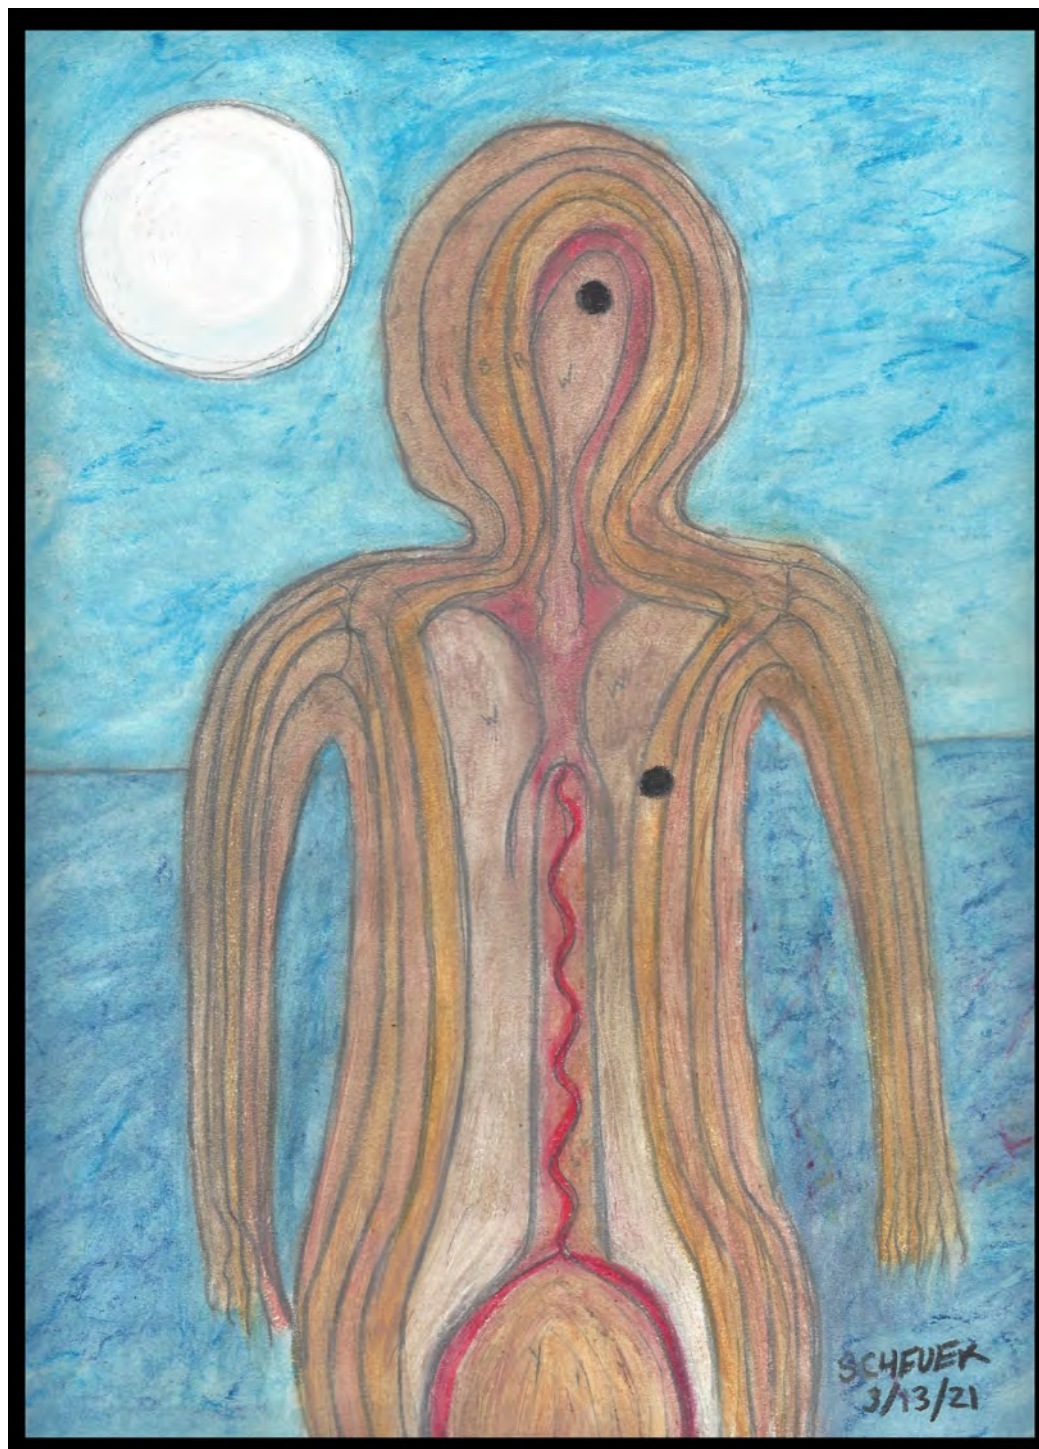

In the lull, fascinated by the delightful initiatives of President Biden: A Holy down to earth man; of #GoodIntent: Aaah, how refreshing! Struggle was to see how the heck these guys who are playing for keeps would upend & definitively usurp the USA? At least Governmental Institutions were more or less functioning...Increased divisive Republican resistance when facing bills of needed humanitarian relief; shockingly coordinated, bold vote suppression initiatives by States...How blatant an outright attack is that!

I found occupation, fascination & inspiration coloring the old sketches, with my new found tools & it evoked an “Emerging Man-With No Hands”.

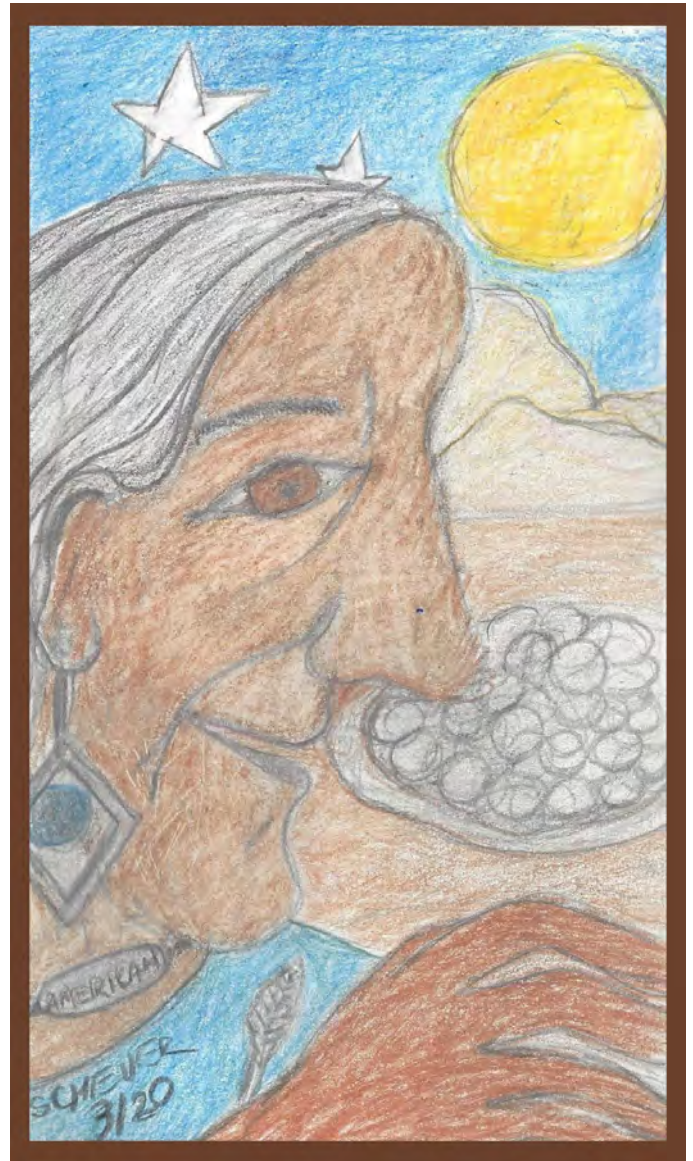

Colored Sketches from early '00's.

Man with No Hands—March 13, 2021

Besides having a soft side for long dark hair beauty, the thought of a Native, of such wisdom, with hands now on the controls; to me is some sort of blessing. #RespectAgain.

My love of ceramics & the under respected creatives of South West Natives, I was pleased to have this old sketch of a Santa Clara Pot to color for Ms. Haaland's swearing in.

Maybe best if we white men be honest with ourselves for once?

We have treated our bounty like a bunch of #GreedyHeathens:

#BothSidesNow.

March days of prospective inquest.

First flowers & New Seeds seen on longer, warmer day bike rides.

Strong sentiments, searching
#TheEvent Horizon.

Planes flying overhead on way to JFK, still make me tremble after four years of this assault. Not a scaredy sort of person, but this one has become somewhat primal!

I just can't stop this uneasy feeling!

Visions of fears expressed here. Liberty rising, perhaps assaulted or in defense, returns:

The twisted torso non-directional.

Fried egg, a composite of our greatest fears: Reminding US that Bill Barr assuredly threatened that he would write History. Oh God, that will sure prove awe-full!

Early March Drawings—Finished Late March

The Bros. done first as an attempt with the new Oils Sticks tool: 2/28. This just before the voter suppression assault, thinking to myself how miserable the Black American People must feel, facing all sorts of oppressions each & every day: Yet they continue to contribute to America in so many extraordinary, invaluable ways!

A tepid return to Social Scenes.

Maga Tavern

The Yellow Blotches

This American Cheese image came strong to mind early in March. Didn't color it until late month. In general, these strange yellow figures have appeared several times the past year & I don't know what they indicate. The Cheese one here floating, alone, invading or fleeing: What could these be?

End Game 1/11/21

Optimist 'til the end!

In looking back for yellow splotch designs, came upon this Bi-Partisan(?) handling of a yellow sheet. Drawn in early 2 k's, but just colored in late February last year; as Covid rose: Not too bad a depiction of the pandemic management struggle that was soon upon US: Do you agree or is it an optimistic sign for Our Destiny?

Easter this weekend: Baskets, Bonnets &?

April—The Unravelling?

It is always interesting to go back each few weeks & compile the new drawing arrivals:

As the obtuse becomes normal, to step back even just a few weeks & see how the temperature has been risen, scorching our good soup.

That Ball is coming real close. Clearly these were not comforting days, so much so, came a call to Resist despite the optimistic Joe/Kamala show ride.

Early April

Easter Souvenir

Smoke House Social Scene

Return to social scenes continues & a last minute Easter Souvenir:

Pictures with short, questionable, twisted horizons continued to appear: Some of the perspectives are mysteriously multi-directional or of indeterminate horizons.

The Orb

With much debate over social resource reallocation brought me to reflect on social constructs & class. This social construct depiction is reminiscent of the early '90's design. A sense of need for more color brought me back to trying oils: Found a board in my daughters room, a fun new palate. When first sense of a need for my social media voice in '15/'16, speed of production was of primary concern...even though the initiative was Food Advertising: It was strange, but need for speed was why we stuck working with pencil & pastel: Odd is, the oil is not necessarily more timely & of more full color: Fun to come!

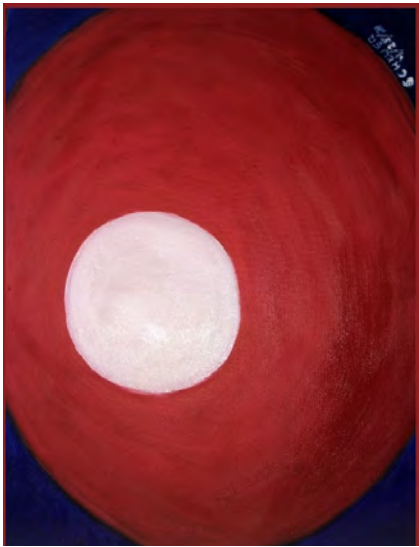

North East Kingdom Autumn '19 Souvenir

Vermont Horizon, drawn for a friend Tim, who graced me with an outing to his cabin in Autumn '19. A long view! I framed it to make it a complete gift.

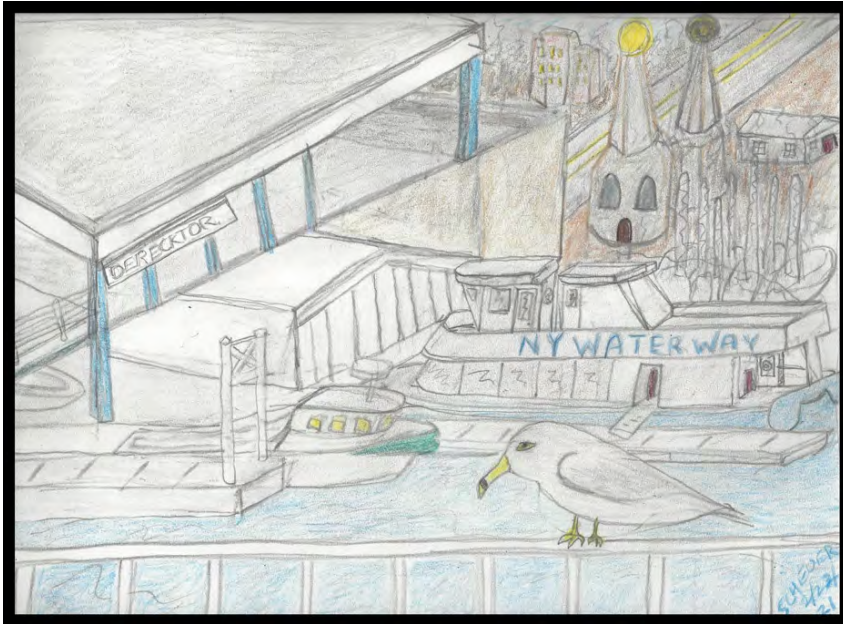

Scientists were talking how melting ice caps have shifted Earth's axis: Oy vey; just what we need to stir up more this turbulent world. Found these three canvases in a local shop, which carried me away into another multi-directional colorful design!

So colorful, such fun, fine bright décor & so much more!

Took a slightly different bike ride route one beautiful Spring evening & came upon the Church & Steeple that often caught my eye; in background of NY Waterway design from late February.

Funny it was funded by boat builders & the drawing had "Derektor, Boat Builder in view!"

Lady Liberty & The Daffodils

There's a waitress at a spot I hang my hat to relax; an attractive young woman with lively spirit, who never fails to evoke depictions of Lady Liberty: To me it is an odd phenomenon: Here she appears, again lost of torch...funny, her name is Ashley!

Spring Daffodil Splatter—More Yellow Splotches of theme “Real Ugly Blossoms”

1st week May—Quite an emotions explosion!

During end of April, things were spinning out of control, with divisive perspectives & designs which took on any sense.

Ever dismayed that we haven't succeeded to more broadly share Leadership Fairytale, we turned to our new tool, oil paints to amplify creation intensity yet again: Oils take a bit longer, but hopeful that the emboldened messages prove more effective! We needed/need this: #UrgencyEmergency!

It was strange, post >5 years on Social Media & maturing #LFT effort, with bold, front running message, few Resisters follow me & few visit #TheBook, despite it being free.

I couldn't imagine why such non-attention, given the beauty in The Tale's intention & invention and ever blooming truths?

May 7th

Rudy subpoena & Liz Cheney being dismissed by her Republican Colleagues: Could this dissing Liz be a Puti weakness, a fixation which will divide the @GOP Party into oblivion, which it risks to do, or is this affirmation of my worst premonitions that elections are not part of the #RepRep, Puti Driven National Overthrow?

Sure feels like the roofs about to blow!

Swarming—May 14

Our favorite model inspiring Lady Liberty rising rose facing US, swatting, swirling in the airs.

This creative magical mystery was quite other worldly.

The sensations were clearly that we were nearing the end...& within days, #RepRep's were talking about armed insurrection, again!

End Game Vortex—May 17

MTG—5/23

Since seeing the “Global Strategy” clearly in 11/16, it has been the intention to flesh out Real Revolution’s details as soon as possible, once they appear more or less clear, only when coming willingly from creative inspiration & seen as timely for all to see: No picture has needed be omitted or delayed in the feed.

I have struggled to see beyond #TheEvent.

It seemed we may be getting to the point of a chapter closure; seeing longer but restricted horizon.

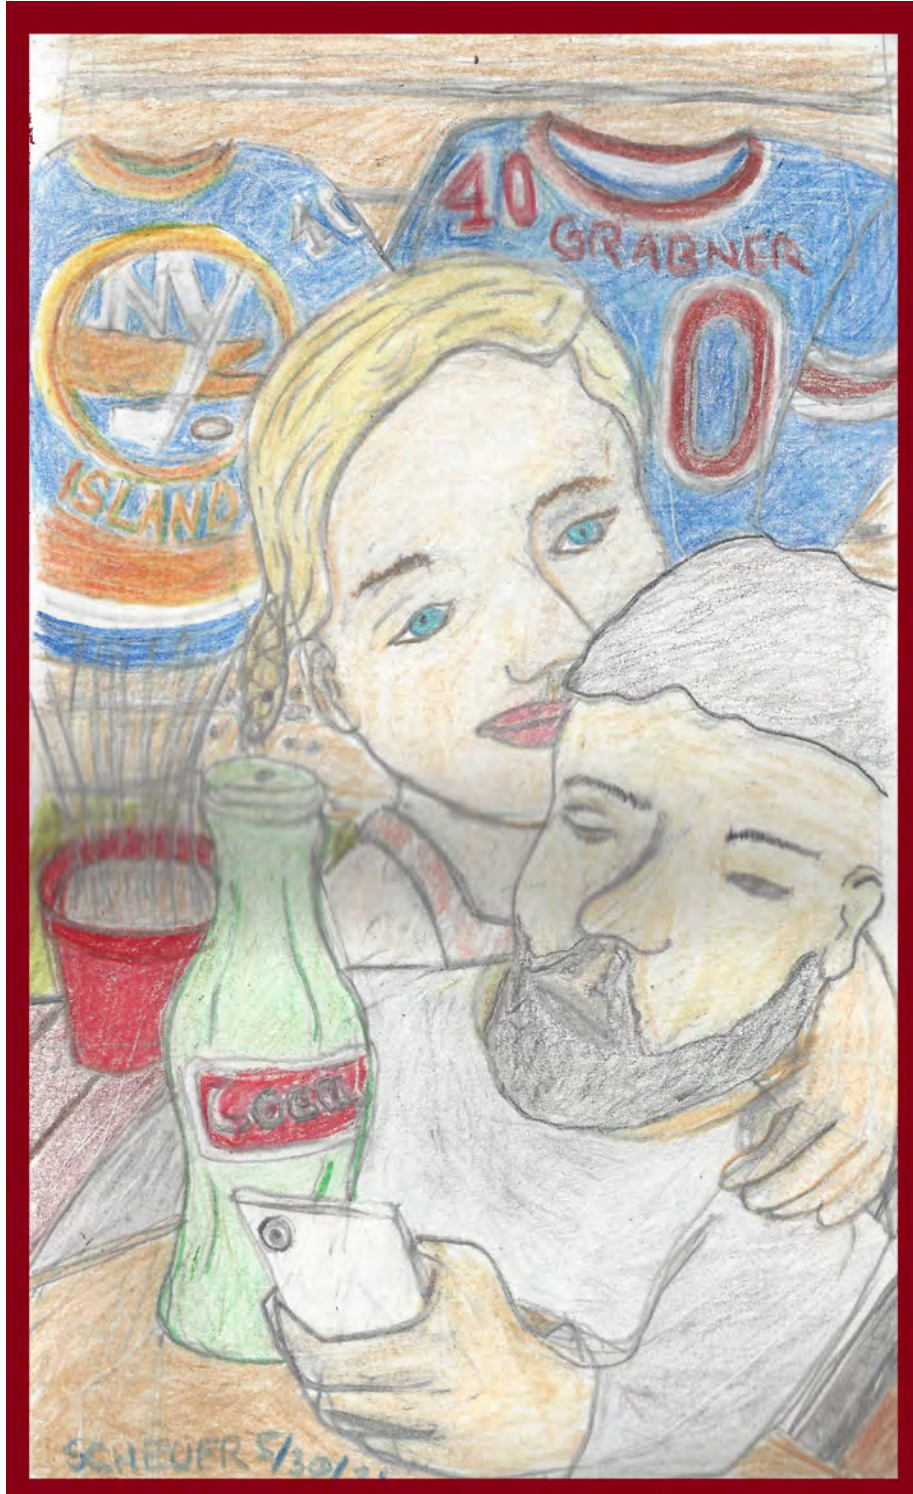

Inspiration waned; exhausted from oil painting concentrations: Painting & drawing require focus & soul occupation; quite demanding: And keeping eye on World Cup Ball Swirling, to catch the curves demands attention 24/7.

Gaetz & Greene took lead on spread of #TheUnrulies nonsense. This Greene Liberty Bridge scene grew around just the back arc & arm line of #TheModel for Ms. Liberty: Strange how it came out of nowhere!

The nonsensical rhetoric would continue to amplify those final days of May & likely will continue to do so more in June: Today they’re saying #PTFull is talking about his re-installation as President by August; Russia & Bibi still snarked, carrying on with their disgrace of USA.

The Event!

6/5th

June 14th

These two paintings done mid-June; a troubling duo: One dealing w. a deluge & the other a "T", inspired in a Philly hotel lobby; came like a flash:

The Demonstrative T proven soon justified, as the ridiculous rhetoric continued other worldly outright blatant disrespect of General Milley, Chairman of Joints Chiefs of Staff: They got guts, are real #FairytaleFools or know of internal DOD compromise: This is serious!

Hold those #MagaHats!
