

Tapestry with Lady and Attendant Hawking

This tapestry, made of wool and silk, was woven in Belgium sometime between 1500-1510. In it we can see two people hawking, which is hunting using birds of prey. One is a fashionably dressed woman and the other is her male attendant. They are both riding horses. Three hounds race along the ground near the horses, and two others with a pup rest in the foreground. There are two falcons - one on the woman's gloved hand, and one perched in a fruit tree.
