We welcome your application to become a Peace Docent and look forward to more conversation about the position. Please sign the following agreement.

Agreement: Submitting this application form does not automatically register me as a Dayton International Peace Museum volunteer. I understand that the Peace Docent position will involve a background check to ensure the safety of children in the museum. I authorize and request each individual and organization named on this form to give information about my character, abilities and past conduct as called upon by the Peace Docent Coordinator. In addition, there may be certain qualifications I must meet and training in which I will participate before I can begin work as a docent.
