

Cabeza & Barro

clay forms by

Nicole Marroquin & Alfonso "Piloto" Nieves

Friday January 21, 2011. 6 PM - 8 PM Exhibition continues through May 15

Curated by Gabriel Villa

Two Chicago-based artists, explore a spectrum of ideas through their original and provocative works. The pieces transform our perceptions of human anatomy, identity, and social & cultural structures through their natural and constructed forms.

Dos artistas de Chicago exploran un espectro de ideas por medio de sus obras originales y provocativas. Estas piezas, por medio de la representación de formas naturales y construidas, transforman nuestras nociones de la anatomía humana, identidad y estructuras sociales y culturales.

1852 West 19th Street
Chicago IL 60608
312.738.1503
www.nationalmuseumofmexicanart.org

Funded by
Chicago Park District, Illinois Arts Council, Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs

