

The Style Lists

A low-angle, upward-looking photograph of the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France. The tower's intricate iron lattice structure is the central focus, extending from the bottom right towards the top center. In the foreground, several branches of cherry blossoms in full bloom are visible, their pink and white flowers contrasting with the tower and the sky. The background is a clear, vibrant blue sky. A dark grey rectangular box is overlaid on the top left, containing the text 'The Style Lists' in white.
