

LCA Dance Studio is a Christ-centered afterschool dance program for children in the lower school. While learning proper dance technique, self-confidence, athleticism, grace, and the performance routines, the students will also have the opportunity to learn scriptures and truths from the Bible. The dance genres of ballet and jazz are taught in a fun, engaging and age appropriate manner. The program is directed and taught by Sunshine Edmunds, an accomplished performer and LCA mom.

Instructor – Sunshine Edmunds

Sunshine has been dancing and performing nearly her entire life. Her love of dance began at the age of two under the tutelage of Shirley Webb Ivey. The love of dance progressed to the overall love for performing arts. She attended Shorter College for Theater and Dance. Among her many church, community, and school productions, she has also worked and toured professionally for Seaside Musical Theater and The Hampstead Players. In addition to the talents of dance and performance, God has given Sunshine the gift of teaching. She began teaching dance in a studio setting in 1996. In 2002, she added preschool teaching to her resume. In 2009, Mrs. Edmunds created Footsteps in Faith afterschool dance program at Mt. Zion Weekday Preschool. In 2017, the program expanded to include LCA Dance Studio.

What do they need?

Dance shoes, etc. Students will need a black or pink leotard, pink dance tights, and pink leather or canvas ballet slippers and hair pulled out of their face for class. A dance bag to pack items in is optional. Items can be sent in the child's school bag. If students need assistance in dressing, the teacher will be available. Dance clothing can be found at most retailers such as Walmart, Target, Academy Sports, Center Stage II and on line at discountdance.com and dancewearolutions.com. Please, NO bedroom or dress-up type slipper ballet shoes.
