Register for NACC 2015 Conference

The Nonprofit Academic Center Council (NACC) will be hosting its 2015 Conference on Nonprofit & Philanthropic Studies in Chicago at DePaul University from July 15-16, 2015. The theme is "The Meaning of 'Nonprofitness,' Capturing it in Research, Curriculum, & Programming." This conference brings together academics, scholars, practitioners, and administrators from around the world to discuss, learn and share tactics and methods that support and build university-based educational programs focused on nonprofit and philanthropic studies. Topics for conversation include instruction, pedagogy, research and substantive issues in education and administration. Graduate students are also encouraged to attend. Registration fees are as follows: Faculty/staff from NACC member institutions $125, non NACC members $175, NLA members $150, students $75.

To register, you must do so at the conference website. When entering the conference website for the 1st time, your internet browser may indicate that there is a security issue. Please note that the conference website is secure. Details on how to proceed beyond the security warnings are available at NACC website in the document titled "Please read before creating a user account."

Please note that faculty and staff of NACC member institutions receive an additional discount. Please contact NACC (216-687-5233) to receive the discount code. Members of the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance also receive a discounted rate. Members should contact Crystal Henry for the discount code.

Payments can be made by credit card or check. Contact Barbara Benevento at 1-216-687-4739 to request an invoice or credit card receipt. Checks should be made payable to Cleveland State University/NACC and mailed to Barbara Benevento, Nonprofit Academic Centers Council, 2121 Euclid Avenue, UR120, Cleveland, OH 44115.

If you have difficulties with registration, please contact Roslyn Bucy Kaleal .
