

CLAPHAM METHODIST CHURCH -ADVERTISMENT

VOLUNTEER CO-ORDINATOR £14,065 - 20 hours per week

Clapham Methodist Church requires a Volunteer Co-ordinator for the Clapham Night Hub in London SW4.

This exciting project has been running successfully for five years, providing a safe-haven in the busy Clapham night-time economy.

The post holder will:

- recruit new volunteers to supplement the existing team,
- co-ordinate the volunteer hub rota,
- arrange appropriate training
- liaise with the Hub stakeholders (which include the Clapham BID, the Police, Lambeth Street Pastors, the Crusader Medical Team, High Street businesses, residents, the Safer Lambeth Partnership and Churches Together in Clapham).

The role provides efficient and effective management of the Hub's operation and development in Clapham's night-time economy. Applicants should have knowledge and experience of the multi-cultural nature of the inner city and be able to relate to and work with a wide range of people with sensitivity and courtesy. They will be required to promote the work of the Night Hub and provide regular reports on its activity. The hours are flexible however, in addition to day-time work in the office, the post-holder will be expected have an active involvement in the Hub during its time of operation and to provide 'on-call' assistance at other times.

They must have experience of church communities and be in sympathy with the ethos of Christian religion. Pack available on 020 7622 2552.

Closing date for applications: Friday 2nd February 2018. Interviews: Friday 9th February 2018.
