PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Co-founder of Lunar Flame Pictures, Alex Gasparetto has a certificate in Film Production from the Motion Picture Institute and a seven year background in Digital Media. He currently serves as a Director and Producer at Lunar Flame Pictures, LLC where he has successfully directed and produced multiple award winning shorts.

Alex's skillset and thorough understanding of the entire production process is what enables him to excel at jobs from Cinematographer and Production Designer, to Assistant Editor on the Feature Film 'This is Nowhere'.

His thesis film "Asphyxia" brought home awards for 'Best Artist' and 'Best Actress' at local festivals. More recently, "Akoma" has earned awards like 'Film Challenge Detroit's Grand Prize Winner', 'Festival Choice Award' and 'Best Cinematographer - Short' at local festivals and has screened across the country at some of the finest international festivals like NFFTY and Cinetopia. His films exemplify true visual story-telling and most often center around strong female leads making him a local filmmaker to keep an eye on.
