Reflections from our Director

My friend Carmen, who died many years ago now, once told me "everyone needs to be needed." We need to know we have value, that our lives have meaning and purpose, and that we belong. Carmen had a hard path through life. A lot of that was due to addiction and mental health problems. For a while, she was able to hold it all together: marriage, children, work, volunteering. Then things started collapsing - her husband divorced her, her children distanced themselves, she couldn't work or volunteer. Bread of Life became a pillar of support for her through food, friends, and encouragement to get into recovery, which she finally did. She was able to stabilize her mental health, get a cute little apartment in Malden, grow houseplants, play games on her computer. But through it all that desire persisted: to make a difference in someone's life, to be needed, to be valued, to be appreciated, to belong. She longed to volunteer with Bread of Life again some day, but cancer ended that dream. I remember how happy she was volunteering, how friendly and enthusiastic. She was valued, she had a meaning and purpose, she was one of us, she was needed.

Carmen's words continue to return to me through the years because Bread of Life provides a place for us to be needed as we help others.

YOU are needed at Bread of Life. Thank you for being part of this work.
God bless you,
Gabriella

Under One Roof Update

We have embarked on the construction of our Under One Roof project. We have commenced our closing process with our bank and funders. Abatement of hazardous materials has begun and demolition of the existing building is expected this month. Our goal is to help control costs by laying the foundation before the cold weather sets in. Total construction time will be 14 months for a Fall 2023 move-in date! That said...we are continuing to raise funds for the project due to cost increases in materials being experienced by our general contractor, and interest rate hikes that have impacted our bank loan.

This new facility will have 70% more space; enable us to be open more hours for volunteers and patrons and to distribute more food to more people; was designed with social distancing considerations for health and safety; and will provide 14 permanent studio apartments to be owned by Metro North Housing Corp for housing very low-income homeless individuals.

On behalf of all the children, families and senior citizens Bread of Life serves, THANK YOU for your support. You are making the dream a reality!

Making a Difference

A longtime Malden resident recently reached out to us, wanting to help. She and her husband, who died last year, have benefited from Bread of Life food services off and on since 2015. They also volunteered, especially using their skills in the office and with fundraising. She expressed how she is forever grateful to Bread of Life for the groceries, meals, meal delivery and emotional support over the years through health problems she and her husband experienced, periods of lost income, and since his death. She proposed to help with a fundraising event and we are looking forward to working with her.

A restaurant owner in the Boston area contacted us wanting his son to volunteer. He had first come to Bread of Life as a volunteer through the Masons years before. He now wanted to pass on the volunteer spirit to the next generation. He and his son came in together and did some grocery deliveries.
After volunteering, he was very excited about Bread of Life and the importance of the work, so much so that he gave a $500 donation.

Community News

Thank You
We are most grateful for the generous donation of $10,000 in memory of Cathy & Stan Rezendes from Edwin & Marilyn Andrews & family. Ed serves a member of Bread of Life’s Board of Directors. Thank you Ed and Marilyn and your family for your commitment and dedication to Bread of Life’s mission.

Melrose Goody Bag Project
Read about the Melrose Goody Bag Project to benefit Bread of Life! Volunteers will meet on Sept. 12 to make goody bags for our families. Read more in this week’s Melrose Weekly News! Thank you Dale, Sandra and Ginny for coordinating this fun project!

Young Professional Advisory Board (YPAB)
Thanks to all who joined us at our first Young Professional Advisory Board (YPAB) Meet n Greet. It was a great night at Idle Hands Craft Ales; a fun night of networking and learning about our YPAB board. Learn more about YPAB here: http://www.breadoflifemalden.org/bod
