

Baggage Instructions

For International Flights

Carry-on Baggage

Advisory: Security measures have been implemented which necessitate an arrival at least 3 hours before departure.

You can carry on one bag plus one personal item per passenger as long as it:

- Weighs less than 18 lbs (8kg).
- Does not exceed 21.6 x 15.7 x 7.8 inches (55 x 40 x 20 cm) to fit in the overhead bin or underneath the seat in front of you.

In addition to your hand baggage, you may take the following items into the cabin:

- A handbag, wrist bag or small bag (or small laptop bag) and their content
- A coat, shawl or blanket
- A small camera or a pair of binoculars
- An appropriate amount of reading material for the journey.
- An infant carrier and baby food for the flight
- Crutches or other orthopedic aids you are dependent on.
- Always carry your valuables (medicines, documents, electronic & money) in your hand luggage.

There may be other limits to carry-on baggage depending on available space and additional restrictions on connecting domestic flights.

Checked Baggage

You can check one bag per passenger free of charge.

Each bag must:

- Weigh 50 lbs (23 kg) or less.
- Not exceed 62.2 inches (158 cm) when you total length plus width plus height.

If you exceed these allowances, there will be additional charges. A fee will apply for a second checked bag.

General Conditions of Acceptance

The airline will accept your baggage for transportation, subject to the following conditions:

- All baggage is subject to search. The TSA performs security checks on checked-in luggage. Do not lock your luggage.
- The airline reserves the right to refuse baggage whose size, weight, character, or condition is unsuitable for transportation on the particular aircraft which is to transport it or which cannot be accommodated without harming or annoying passengers.
- Baggage check-in requirements, which vary by airport, must be met.
- Baggage must be checked in at a the airline's designated city or airport office.
- Your name must be on your luggage. A name label is also recommended to be inside your bag.
- Baggage will not be checked to a destination that is not on a passenger's itinerary.
