
STEPS

- 1 Review World Relief's Mission, Vision, and Values and Statement of Faith to ensure that your personal beliefs and motivating factors are in alignment with those of the organization.
 - 2 Search the Employment Opportunities for openings that interest you.
 - 3 Submit your online application. Answer all required questions and attach all supporting documentation (resume, cover letter, etc.).
 - 4 You will receive an email from World Relief acknowledging receipt of your application.
 - 5 A Recruitment Specialist will review application against the position requirements. You may be contacted for a phone interview to gain additional information and to ascertain your cultural fit with World Relief.
 - 6 Short-listed candidates will be invited for an in-person interview. Interviews are normally held at the job location. There are times when a mutually convenient offsite location may be selected to hold the interview.
Candidates who are selected for employment will be contacted by telephone or email.
 - 7 Candidates who have not been selected for employment will be notified via email. Applications will be retained in our database for future consideration.
