Position Overview
The Ellwood House Museum seeks an education intern for the Selenia Rolfe Towle Teague Internship. The main purpose of the internship will be to assist with educational programming at the museum. The intern will learn the public tour programs and deliver those tours to a diverse audience. The intern will also assist with Ellwood Explorers youth education events and the Brown Bag Lunch/Local Lore adult lecture series. As a secondary project, the intern will create a single, independent educational program.

About the Ellwood House Museum
The Ellwood House Museum campus features a palatial 1879 mansion, six additional historic buildings, ten acres of scenic grounds, four gardens, and 6,000 square feet of exhibit space in the Patience Ellwood Towle Visitor Center. Originally the home of barbed wire entrepreneur Isaac Ellwood, the site speaks to the profound impact of the barbed wire industry in America and reflects the tastes of multiple generations of the Ellwood family who guided the evolution of the grounds and structures. The museum, located off the eastern edge of Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, Illinois, hosts approximately 10,000 visitors annually through guided tours, programs, and events.
