BURGUNDY

Bonneau du Martray

2006 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru	$261.06
"The '06 is more obviously riper than the '07 with a complex, ripe and elegant mix of green apple, spice and minerality that complements perfectly the round, rich, detailed and stony flavors that possess ample mid-palate fat and superb depth of material, all wrapped in a gorgeously long and drenching finish. A study in harmony and grace that should also age well for years." 94, Allen Meadows, July 1, 2009
2007 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru	$261.06
"This remains almost unchanged from my original review and while there is some discernible development, it remains quite youthful with its wonderfully elegant, pure and high-toned nose that is quite floral with a pronounced citrus influence to the green apple and wet stone notes that border on a mineral-reduction character. The detailed and equally pure mineral-driven medium-bodied flavors possess a cuts-like-a-knife linearity on the bone dry and palate staining finish. This is like sucking on pebbles and while the flavors are still distinctly austere, the balance is impeccable and this should make for a first-rate vintage for this wine in time." 93, Allen Meadows, July 05, 2013

Maison Nicolas Potel

2011 Bourgogne Rouge	$24.80
Aromatic and harmonious; perfect now! RJ

MACON

Domaine Merlin

2015 Macon La Roche Vineuse	$27.40
No current reviews

RHONE VALLEY

Domaine de la Garrigue

2013 AOC Vacqueyras $28.00

“Deep brilliant red. Energetic aromas of fresh red berries and pungent flowers, complicated by subtle white pepper and mineral qualities. At once lively and concentrated, showing very good energy to the bitter cherry and raspberry flavours. Tangy acidity adds cut to the zesty, perfumed finish, which is framed by smooth, slow-building tannins.” 90, Josh Reynolds, VM, Apr 2016

Domaine de la Janasse

2015 Côte du Rhône “Tradition” $21.90

“The 2015s all show more elegant profiles than in the past, at the expense of some texture and richness. The 2015 Côtes du Rhône was bottled early in August and is mostly Grenache, brought up in foudre and concrete tanks. It’s a deliciously fruit-forward, medium to full-bodied effort that has tons of darker fruits, pepper and wild herb aromas and flavors. Drink it over the coming 3-4 years.” 88, Jeb Dunnuck, RP, #2271, Oct 2016

LANGUEDOC

Chateau Aiguilloux

2012 AOC Corbières Cuvée des Trois Seigneurs $19.50

“The 2012 Trois Seigneurs is a supple, medium-bodied and easy-drinking effort that has lots of Provencal herbs, sweet black cherry fruits, licorice and fennel aromas and flavors. Made from 65% Carignan, 20% Syrah and 15% Grenache aged 12 months in one- to three-year-old barrels, it has ripe tannin and a well-made style that will keep it drinking nicely for 4-5 years.” 88, Jeb Dunnuck, RP, #224, April 2016

Domaine Roque Sestière

2014 Corbières Blanc “Carte Noire” $22.00
No current reviews

Clos Bagatelle

2016 Saint Chinian Cuvée Tradition Rouge $17.65

ALSACE

Bott Geyl

NV Crémant D'Alsace Paul-Edouard Extra-Brut $32.00
No current reviews

Domaine Schoffit

2015 Chasselas Vieilles Vignes $27.43
“The citrus colored 2015 Chasselas Vieilles Vignes opens with a generous and aromatic bouquet with ripe pears and tropical fruit aromas along with some chalky/smoky flavors. Round and smooth on the palate, this is creamy textured and mouth-filling Chasselas with lower acidity (malolactic included) and higher residual sugar than the 2014. Tropical fruit flavors and fine tannins in the finish.” 88, Stephan Reinhardt, RP, #229, Feb 2017
