BURGUNDY

Benjamin Leroux

2013 Corton Grand Cru $210.00

“This too is slightly advanced aromatically with a mix of gamy and earthy red currant and floral scents. There is fine mid-palate density and an overt muscularity to the vibrant and again firmly mineral-driven big-bodied flavors where the supporting tannins are relatively fine-grained. While the structure would suggest at least 10 years of aging potential the nose suggests that a compromise is in order and thus my suggested drinking window is slightly earlier than it otherwise might be.” 89-92, Burghound, #58, April 15, 2015

MACON

RHONE VALLEY

Domaine de Jean-Paul & Corinne Jamet

2013 Côte Rotie $169.00

“Still not in bottle, the 2013 Cote Rotie was more tight and reserved on this occasion than during my tastings last year. Nevertheless, it still offers terrific depth and concentration, as well a plenty of tannic grip. Offering classic notes of violets, blackberries, raspberries, cured meats and pepper, it has a certain austerity and will be one to hide in the cellar for a good 6-7 years.” 92-94, Jeb Dunnuck, RP, #222, December 30, 2015

Domaine de la Janasse

2016 Côte du Rhône “Tradition” $24.75

“Bottled just two weeks before I tasted it, the 2016 Cotes du Rhone was singing nonetheless. Mainly Grenache, it shows great cherry fruit, ample weight, silky tannins and just a hint of chocolate on the finish. Already delicious, it should drink well over the next 5 or 6 years.” 91, Joe Czerwinski, RP, #233, October 31, 2017

Domaine Schoffit

2015 Chasselas Vieilles Vignes $31.00
"The citrus colored 2015 Chasselas Vieilles Vignes opens with a generous and aromatic bouquet with ripe pears and tropical fruit aromas along with some chalky/smoky flavors. Round and smooth on the palate, this is creamy textured and mouth-filling Chasselas with lower acidity (malolactic included) and higher residual sugar than the 2014. Tropical fruit flavors and fine tannins in the finish." 88, Stephan Reinhardt, RP, #229, Feb 2017

TUSCANY

STELLA DI CAMPALTO

2011 Brunello di Montalcino Riserva $168.00
“Bright pale red with an amber nuance. Candied red cherry, sweet spices, rose petal and minerals on the expressive, almost flamboyant nose. Then surprisingly linear, fresh and juicy; noteworthy floral lift and woody sweet spices complement the vibrant red cherry and red berry flavors. Tremendously precise and very complex, delivering a long mineral finish that lasts and lasts. Picks up considerable volume with aeration as well as noteworthy sweet spice elements.” 93+, Ian D’Agata, VM, Feb 2017

2013 Rosso di Montalcino $95.00
“This wine is right out of Stella’s celebrated Sangiovese playbook. It shows a beautiful sense of crispness and brightness that translates to both the bouquet and the palate. Wild roses and cherries give the wine a sense of warmth and liveliness. Indeed, those delicate floral aromas are very specific to both the vintage and the house style.” 92, Monica Larner, RP, #235, Feb 28, 2018
