- Dinner Party
- Charity Tournament (golf, basketball, etc.) (<https://bizfluent.com/organize-charity-sports-event-7249.html>)
- Contact your local high school and ask if you can head their sport charity night. Usually “pink night” for football and volleyball. Get youth involved.
- Cow Plop - fence a cow off next to the football field with small squares taped (or spray painted) off within fenced parameter. Attendees can pay to wager on which squares the cow will first “plop” (drop a cow pie) in.
- Peer-to-peer fundraising
- Community/ holiday festival
- Bingo (donation buy-in to play)
- Game night (donation buy-in to play)
- Caroling for the cause
- Battle of the bands- have band connections? Organize a Battle of the Bands with a band buy in. Part of the buy-in can go to the winning band and part can go to RD.
- Restaurant “Dine for a Cause” many restaurants offer these nights (typically on a Mon-Thurs) where a percentage of the dine in proceeds go to a non-profit.
- Comedy Night- Contact your local comedy club and see if they’d partner with you for a fundraising night. RD’s been able to partner with the Boise, ID club and set a 25 seat minimum that goes back to them to cover their comedian and any additional sales go to RD. We also make a small percentage on food and bar sales
