Libourne station to Chateau Rigaud

1. Take Rue de Chanzy straight out of the station, (at the main station roundabout this one leads directly away with the station behind you) which will take you up to the long wide tree lined avenue of Cours Tourny / Allee Robert Boulin.
2. You are forced to turn right onto Cours Tourny since it's two lanes on either side but you then need to turn left across the road by means of the roundabout at the end and continue back down to the huge Square des Quinzieme Dragons where you take the Bergerac road, (D670 Avenue Verdun).
3. Keep going on this road. You will pass the football ground and then Carrefour. Over several roundabouts and on, direction St Emilion and Bergerac.
4. Pass by St Emilion on the left and continue, through St Pey D'Armens (take care of a speed camera!) and just keep coming until you get close to Castillon La Bataille.
5. Approaching Castillon you pass a huge E.Leclerc supermarket on the right. At the next roundabout take the right exit signed for Pujols.
6. Follow this road around the sharp bend and at the T Junction turn right, then continue over the iron bridge (designed by Eiffle of Eiffle Tower fame!) and continue to the next T Junction.
7. This is a dangerous junction so be careful.... you need to turn right then immediately left. Continue past the Moullets et Villemartin village sign then take the first right turn which is opposite the war memorial and signed for the Cemitiere. You then pass the cemetery on your right and continue across the valley to the next T junction.
8. Turn left at the T junction and continue for about half a mile, round a bend then down the slight slope until you see Chateau Rigaud ahead of you on the right hand side.
9. Drive up under the arch. You've arrived and someone should come out to greet you!
