

ADARMANDO

BIANCO UMBRIA

INDICAZIONE GEOGRAFICA TIPICA

The dream of a great white wine from the hills of Sagrantino has been rediscovered and finally realized in this Trebbiano Spoletino, a traditional vine of great elegance and charm. This linking thread between past and future was bound to remind us of Armando, Giampaolo's maternal grandfather who, like this wine, had a generous and resolute character: unique.

Appellation	I.G.T.
Produced In	Montefalco
Grapes	100% Trebbiano Spoletino
Exposure	South-East
Year of Vineyard Planting	1920
Altitude	350 s.m.l.
Training System	Sylvoz
Vines per Hectare	3.000
Soil Type	Sandy, clay
Production per Hectare	8 tons
Vinification	White wine
Aging	At least 12 months in stainless steel with the lees
Aging in the Bottle	6 months
Bottles Produced per Year	8.000

