

Top 10 unknown places to visit in Italy

In Italy there is an enormous patrimony of villages and woods, churches and art places. We selected 10 of the best unknown places to visit in Italy.

Have a look and don't miss our next suggestions!

Vallone dei Mulini (Sorrento)

In this valley of the Sorrento's peninsula, nature have taken control of an old abandoned place. The Vallone dei Mulini is what remains of one of the five gorges around Sorrento. It was closed due to the construction of Tasso Square, which isolated completely the accesses to the site. the almost total closing of this area caused such an humid climate that very singular plants started to growth.

Bussana Vecchia (Sanremo)

A suggestive village of artists born on the ruins of an abandoned medieval town. Bussana Vecchia, once inhabited by artists coming from all over the world, remains a magic place, an open air laboratory of art. In the alleyways you are able to admire artisan shops and ateliers which arise in the amazing stone constructions.

Castello di Sammezzano

An amazing Moorish castle is hiding in Reggello, in province of Florence. The Castle was realized in 1605 by the Ximened d'Aragona family. Surrounded by a spectacular garden, the castle is nowadays almost abandoned.

Parco dei Mostri di Bomarzo

An unique place where myths and mythologies, monsters and literary figures became creatures made of stone and covered by mud. It is located near Viterbo. Story goes that the park was built by will of Prince Pier Francesco Orsini in 1500 to vent the pain for the untimely death of his wife, Giulia Farnese.

Sant'Agata De' Boschi (Benevento)

In Caudina Valley, on the slopes of the Taburno Mont and on the board line with the province of Caserta, you can visit the medieval town, a casket situated on a basalt relief, with which confused itself.

Curon Venosta - Resia Lake (Bolzano)

The steeple of the ancient village of Curon, that doesn't exist anymore, comes up from the Resia Lake. The Curon Village is submerged and it is situated under the artificial lake of Resia.

Civita di Bagnoregio (Viterbo)

It is called "town that is dying" because, built on tufo and with tufo, its borders are bound to perpetual erosion. There are only 15 people living in the area and nowadays, the town can be accessed via a pedestrian bridge.

Lagheti di Marinello (Messina)

In Sicily (in the province of Messina) there is a saline lagoon which changes shape under the pressure of both the wind and of the tides; a white line made by gravel and sand tracks the boardline between sea and lake.

La Scarzuola (Terni)

Hiding among the Umbrian hills, there is a place known as La Scarzuola that is known for an amazing construction, the ideal city of Tomaso Buzzzi. The ideal City is composed by seven theaters and seven scene performances; in addition, seven are the represented monuments: Colosseum, Parthenon, Pantheon, Triumphal Arc, Pyramid, Bell Tower and Temple of Vesta.

Incomplete Church of Venosa (Potenza)

Outside the city of Venosa, the Complex of the Holy Trinit is located, where, in the past, was situated the economical and political center of the city. In this Complex, you will be able to find an amazing incomplete Church, which arises behind the Ancient Church.

Eremo di Vincent (Salerno)

In Guagnano, a sleepy town of the Salerno's province, there is a special hermitage that represents the house of an artist which created an imaginary city using only recycled materials.

Montagna Spaccata in Gaeta (Latina)

A mountain which is split in two with a legendary history, a church on a suspend rock on the sea, a cave that once was an heritage and a hand impressed in the rock: these are the things you are able to see in a singular corner of Gaeta.

ITALIAN INDUSTRY & COMMERCE OFFICE IN THE UAE

#1001, 10th floor, 48 Burj Gate
Downtown Dubai, Dubai (UAE)

Tel: 00971 4 321 6260

E-mail: info@iicuae.com

Web-Site: www.iicuae.com

المكتب الإيطالي للصناعة والتجارة في دولة الإمارات العربية المتحدة