FROM OUR PAROCHIAL VICAR

Dear friends in Christ,

As I move to my new assignment this week at the Cathedral of St. Paul and take on a greater load of work at St. John Vianney Seminary, I do so with sadness, knowing that I leave the most reverent and faithful parish that I have ever known. And though it seems that we're just getting to know each other after this year, I can see God's providence in this move.

We learned in seminary that the Gospels did not originally have chapter divisions. The Gospels were simply continuous narratives. But some passages mark unmistakable transitions. For instance, the Gospel St. Luke reveals that, "When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem. . .". That journey was the beginning of his Passion. He made this journey intending to follow the Father's will. Thus, I, like all disciples must go where the Father leads, especially when it is revealed to me by one of the successors of the apostles, namely Bishop Cozzens.

Jesus then reveals that "the son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." The disciples' life in this world is always marked by impermanence of place. Pastors and vicars tend to leave parishes just when they are becoming comfortable. But this is no tragedy. Comfort is not a high value in the Christian life. Detachment for the sake of the Gospel is.

Jesus then shows the urgency of his call, telling a would-be disciple to leave behind the care for his father for the sake of the proclaiming the Good News. The work that I have to do at the Cathedral and St. John Vianney college seminary is quite urgent. But it is no less urgent at St. Agnes Church and School. Just as Jesus was heading into strong headwinds, we as a Church have great suffering ahead of us in the years to come.

Several decades hence, I can imagine far fewer supporters of their local churches. But there will be many more people who find themselves rootless and searching for God. I have a dream that St. Agnes will be a regional center of faith, hope and love for many generations to come. Like a voice crying out in the wilderness, this church and school will help people encounter Christ and the Eucharist when they stand in dire need of meaning and hope. But the legacies, spiritual and material, that you leave in these years and months will have been a necessary condition for that hopeful future. Please continue to invest generously in this parish with your prayers and contributions.

Rev. Andrew Jaspers

Modesty and Appropriate Dress for Mass

Despite the rising temperatures, please dress modestly, especially at Holy Mass. We must always assist others in treating us with the dignity we deserve as sons and daughters of God. We encourage this is by avoiding revealing and excessively form fitting clothing. Also, please still wear one's "Sunday best" to Mass, even if the clothes are more appropriate to the summer months.

In Christ, Rev. Mark Moriarty

THIS WEEK AT SAINT AGNES

Offices Closed on Fridays this Summer

The Parish and School Offices will be closed on Fridays during the summer. Emails and voicemails will be reviewed on the next open business day. In case of a life and death emergency that requires a priest, please call the emergency number (651.925.8899). Fridays will again be staffed beginning September 1.

CHORALE & ORCHESTRA NOTES

Franz Schubert, Mass in G (1815 )

The music for this Mass is sponsored by the Twin Cities Catholic Chorale in honor and appreciation of Virginia A. Schubert, PhD, President of its Board of Directors

With this Mass we experience Franz Schubert's (1797-1828), gift for lyric beauty and simplicity. Although only 18 years old, he had already composed over 150 musical pieces, including this Mass, which he created in just five days. The Twin Cities Catholic Chorale is a non-profit corporation, which depends solely on the generosity of its patrons. Programs are available at the church entrances and posted on the Chorale's website at www.catholicchorale.org. Next Friday evening the Chorale & Orchestra will present W.A. Mozart's Mass in C, K 337. This Mass will conclude the Chorale & Orchestra's 43rd season.

SPECIAL CHORAL/ORCHESTRAL MASS - ALL ARE WELCOME

Friday, June 23, at 5:15 pm

W.A. Mozart, Mass in C, K 337 (1780)

(This music for this Mass is presented in conjunction with the Church Music Association of America (CMAA) 2017 Sacred Music Colloquium

While seldom heard in concert halls and rarely recorded, this last complete Mass composed in 1780 by W. A. Mozart (1756-1791) nonetheless offers lovely, joyful music appropriate for liturgical use. The Twin Cities Catholic Chorale is a non-profit corporation, which depends solely on the generosity of its patrons. Programs are available at the church entrances and posted at www.catholicchorale.org. This Mass concludes the 43rd Chorale & Orchestra season at Saint Agnes. The next Orchestra Mass will be presented on Sunday, October, 8, when the Chorale & Orchestra begins its 44th season with Joseph Haydn's Kleine Orgelsolomesse.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

Theology on Tap Wednesdays, June 14 - Wednesday, July 19

Time: 6:30 pm Social, 7:30 pm Speaker / Discussion

Place: O'Gara's, St Paul

Theology on Tap is a 6-week speaker series held twice a year, once during the winter and once during the summer. Topics focus on faith and contemporary issues that directly affect the lives of young adults. The talk is free, but all are encouraged to support O'Gara's, who generously hosts this event. All young adults ages 18-39 are welcome to come join in mixing good beer with better knowledge!

June 21: "Chesterton's Holy Hilarity" with Dale Ahlquist, The American Chesterton Society

June 28: "An Unexpected Miracle" with Nicki Wood Weinhausen, local parishioner

Vatican Synod on Youth/Young Adults

Pope Francis is calling a general assembly (synod) of the bishops on the theme, "Youth, Faith, and Vocational Discernment" in October, 2018. The Church wishes to listen to the voices of young people, their sensitivities, their faith, even their doubts and criticisms.

A series of Listening Sessions are being held throughout our Archdiocese. The next scheduled session is Wednesday, July 19, 6:30 pm at O'Gara's, Saint Paul (as part of the Theology on Tap summer series). In addition, young adults ages 16-30 are encouraged to take a brief online survey. For many more details, please visit www.archspm.org/YoungAdultVoices.

Creighton Model FertilityCare System Natural Family Planning Classes

Sarah Slattery, a physician assistant at AALFA Family Clinic and FertilityCare Practitioner Intern, is looking to teach couples the Creighton Model Form of natural family planning. Couples must be new to the method. Classes are offered at AALFA Family Clinic in White Bear Lake, MN. Call AALFA at 651.653.0062 today to sign up for classes.

NOTICE: 7:00 AM Confessions on First Fridays and First Saturdays Discontinued Starting July 1

Due to low and inconsistent numbers of penitents, the decision has been made to cancel 7:00 am Confessions offered on First Fridays and First Saturdays. Penitents who wish to make the Nine First Fridays or the Five First Saturdays will be able to make the required Confession from 4-5:00 pm on Fridays or the regular Saturday Confession times of 4-5:00 pm or 8-9:00 pm.
