"COME, GO WITH ME TO THAT LAND"
JONSON WINS IN BOTH ELECTIONS!

General Election

by Beulah Mae Ayers

How do the Negroes of Mississippi feel after the election? Great! Just great, because we, along with the president, have won a victory ourselves.

What are we going to do about it?

1. Go down to the courthouse and try to register. Try and try again. If you don't succeed at first, you may at ten.

2. After you have registered, put your name in the book, because they won't know if you are a registered voter if your name isn't on the book.

3. Then, when you are a registered, MAKE SURE YOU VOTE.

A.S.C.S. Election News

Petitions from the 2nd and 3rd districts nominating community committeemen have already been filed at the A.S.C.S. office and have been cordially received by Mr. Gordon Stone, Benton county ASCS manager.

The nominees include Mr. Walter Weber and Mr. Loyal Thompson from the 3rd district, and Mr. L.B. Paige, Mr. Glenon Jackson, and Mr. Jake Molifee from the 2nd district.

All eligible voters should have already received letters from the ASCS office announcing the elections. In order to be eligible, a man has only to make a crop—either as a sharecropper, tenant, or owner.

Mr. Stone explained to representaives of the Citizens Club that he probably forgot to put some names on the list by error, and that all a person has to do is to order to be able to vote is to go to the office and request that his name be put on the voters list.

SO, IF YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED A LETTER, GO TO THE ASCS OFFICE NOW!!
Looking on Laughing

by Edith White

I am a cadet Girl Scout and one of our laws is to be friendly to all people. But let me tell you a story about something.

One day I was going to the store, and there beside the road were some white girls and a little boy. As I walked close to them, one of the larger girls saw me and stood there looking and laughing at me.

Then I said good evening to one of them and she acted like she would die laughing. So I went on.

When I came back, they were still looking on laughing. Then I said to myself, "I am a girl scout and am friendly."

But how can you be friendly to someone like that? All you can do is act like they do.

Am I right?

(Editor's note: We would like to hear from other readers on this question. Do you agree with Edith? How would you act in such a situation?)

WE SHALL OVERCOME!
LET AMERICA BE AMERICA AGAIN
by Langston Hughes

Let America be America again
Let it be the dream it used to be.
Let it be the pioneer on the plain
Seeking a home where he himself is free.

Let America be the dream the dreamers dreamed--
Let it be that great strong land of love
Where never kings connive nor tyrants scheme
That any man can be crushed by one above.
(It never was America to me.)

0, Let my land be a land where Liberty
Is crowned with no false patriotic wreath,
But opportunity is real, and life is free,
Equality is in the air we breathe.
(There's never been equality for me,
Nor freedom in this "Homeland of the free.")

Say who are you that mumbles in the dark?
And who are you that draws you veil across the stars?

I am the poor white, fooled and pushed apart,
I am the Negro, bearing slavery's scars.
I am the red man driven from the land,
I am the immigrant clutching the hope I seek--
And finding only the same old stupid plan,
Or dog eat dog, of mighty crush the weak.

I am the young man, full of strength and hope,
Tangled in that ancient endless chain
Of profit, power, gain, of grab the land!
Of grab the gold! Of grab the ways of satisfying needs!

I am the farmer, bondsman to the soil,
I am the worker sold to the machine.
I am the Negro, servant to you all.
I am the people, humble, hungry, mean--
Hungry yet today--despite the dream.
Beaten yet today--0, Pioneers
I am the man who never got ahead,
The poorest worker bartered through the years.

Yet I'm the one who dreamt our basic dream
In that Old World while still a serf of kings,
Who dreamt a dream so strong, so brave, so true,
That even yet its might daring sings
In every brick and stone, in every furrow turned
That's made America the land it has become.
0 I'm the one who sailed those early seas
In search of what I meant to be my home--
For I'm the one who left dark Ireland's shore,
And Poland's plain, and England's grassy lea,
And torn from Black Africa's strand I came...
To build a "homeland of the free."

The free?

Who said the free? Not me?
Surely not me? The millions on relief today?
The millions shot down when we strike?
The millions who have nothing for our pay?
For all the dreams we've dreamed
And all the songs we've sung
And all the hopes we've held
And all the flags we've hung,
The millions who have nothing for our pay--
Except the dream that's almost dead today.

O, Let America be America again--
The Land that never has been yet--
The yet must be--the land where every man is free.
The land that's mine--the poor man's, the Indian's, Negro's, ME
Who made America.
Whose sweat and blood, whose faith and pain,
Whose hand at the foundry, whose plow in the rain,
Must bring back our mighty dream again.

Sure, call me any ugly name you choose
The steel of freedom does not stain.
From those who live like leeches on the people's lives,
We must take back our land again.
America!

O, Yes.
I say it plain.
America never was America to me,
And yet I swear this oath--
America will be!

Out of the rack and ruin of our gangster death,
The rape and rot of graft, and stealth, and lies,
We, the people, must redeem
The land, the mines, the plants, the rivers,
The mountains and the endless plain--
All, all the stretch of these great green states--
And make America again!
