May 29 	May 30 	May 31 	Color My Plate: Farmer's Markets When the weather gets warmer, many communities operate farmer's markets. A farmer's market is a place where local farmers sell fruits, vegetables, and other foods directly to consumers. It's a fun and inexpensive way to purchase fresh produce. It's also a great way to support the local economy. To find a farmer's market near you, visit the website for your state's Department of Agriculture.
