

WHAT WE DO

As one of the leading nonprofit children's organizations in the country, Children's Home Society of Washington believes we all benefit when we support children. We are a national innovation leader at the forefront of change for our country's children and continue our legacy to create systems change at the state and national levels. Through our work with the whole family, we have watched thousands of children across our state move toward reaching their full potential.

MISSION

To develop healthy children, create strong families, build engaged communities, and speak and advocate for children.

VISION

A world where ALL children thrive.

HISTORY

CHSW is the oldest and largest statewide nonprofit children's organization. In 1896, we were founded by the Rev. Harrison D. Brown and his wife, Libbie Beach Brown, who believed children should be living in homes and not institutions.

OUTCOMES

Providing a safe and secure place for children, creating nurturing and stable families, contributing to educational success and social, emotional and physical well-being.

IMPACT STATEMENT

We envisioned what it would look like if children had what they needed before reaching a crisis point. We dreamed of every family having access to the services we provide, regardless of income. We created a network of support to meet a family's needs in one place.
