Belle Glos Pinot Noir Blanc

$46

Bright acidity and flavors of pink grapefruit and lemon zest. The brightness verges on minerality, but there is so much weight that the richness balances out the acidity. A very sexy California style Rosé of Pinot Noir

Castel des Maures, Côtes de Provence

$36

Light bodied, slightly acidic and mouthwatering. The flavor profile is a mild mineral infused strawberry with hints of clementine. The finish is dry and its flavors linger nicely.

Martin Ray Rosé of Pinot Noir

$36

A dry, but fruit-forward rose from Russian River, California made of 100% Pinot Noir. Easy drinking and a lovely magenta color.

Domaine de Fonstainte Corbières

$36

Expressive. The light bodied wine immediately gives off notes of raspberry, cherry and freshly picked strawberries - followed by exotic aromas such as pineapple and mango. House favorite!

Rosé of Wölffer Estate

$40

A salmon colored rosé on the drier side with subtle notes of peaches and apricot. Very sophisticated and accessible.

Juvé Y Camps Rosé Brut Cava

$44

Exactly what you want for pink bubbles, except these sport a cherry red color. The taste is slightly sweet with balanced acidity and big bubbles. Strong personality but very refreshing.

Summer in a Bottle, Wölffer**

**$45

Absolute limited stock and the best rosé we've ever tasted. We got as much as we could and then it's gone. Truly tastes like summer in a bottle.

Cote des Roses, Gérard Bertrand**

**$60

Heads up, Ladies and Gents..This is a Magnum bottle! Simply put, this is an elegant rosé both inside and out. Features a balanced blend of grenache, cinsault, and syrah grapes and a glass-blown rose on bottom of bottle...you're gonna want to keep the empty!
