AUTUMN TREND INSPIRATION FOR YOUR HOME

Across the World: Hollywood Tiles by Decorum Est

The glamour of Hollywood in the 1940s is the inspiration behind Decorum Est's latest collection, aptly named Hollywood. Tiles are made of hard white serpentine hard stone with polished German silver using an ancient technique known as Opus Sectile, which gives each one a unique texture. Although it is not officially available until January, the Hollywood range is already available this year on request. £1,703 per square metre, Decorum Est.
