

Old House & Barn Exhibitors

Here's a preliminary look at our exhibitor line up (list in formation!):

Specialty products and services will be showcased by Aeurus, BWA, Inc., D.R. Dimes, Diane Louise Paul Leather, Erikson's Antique Stoves, Ink Drawings by Gene Matris, MB Historic Décor, Maine Blanket, Northfields Hewing, Ould Colony Artisans, RST, Standfast Forge, Stenciling by Michele, and Vermont Soapstone.

Experienced preservation contractors, designers and millwork specialists at the Expo include: Ahlgren and Son Builders, Bedard Preservation & Restoration, Ian Blackman, LLC Restoration and Preservation, Eisenmann Woodworking, Fifield Building Restoration and Relocation, First Period Colonial, J.R. Graton Historic Restoration, and Vintage Kitchens.

Expo landscape and stone related specialists include: Bartlett Tree Experts, James Rodriques Hardscapes, and LandCare Associates/Stratham Stone. Window-related exhibitors include Decatur Co., Sash & Solder, Innerglass Window Systems, Window Master, Inc., and Window Preservation Alliance.

Architectural and old house booksellers Steve Schuyler and Summer Beam Books will be at the Expo as well as Antique Homes magazine and NHPBS. Other specialists exhibiting include: Healthy Homes and Lead Poisoning Prevention Program; Historic and Distinctive Properties, ReVision Energy, and Woods & Co. Civil Engineering.

And nonprofit organizations and agencies with helpful information and opportunities include The Center for Painted Wall Preservation, the barn cat program of the Pope Memorial SPCA of Concord – Merrimack County, Historic New England, North Bennet Street School, Sanborn Mills Farm, Timber Framers Guild, The Stone Trust, Strawberry Banke Museum, N.H. Division of Historic Resources, Land and Community Heritage Investment Program, and the N.H. State Council on the Arts. And more!

Subject to change.

Questions? Contact the Preservation Alliance at 603-224-2281 or projects@nhpreservation.org