

Demonstrations and Educational Sessions

SATURDAY, MARCH 24, 2018

No pre-registration needed; all sessions are first come first served

9 am – 5pm

- Show floor On-going Demonstrations – Traditional Arts Demonstrations - Heritage Based Music from New England, Chair Seat Weaving and more
- Salon A On-going Demonstrations – Timber Framing, Stone Wall Building and Wood Turning and Hand Tool Use
- Meet Tom McLaughlin from NHPBS' Rough Cut with Fine Woodworking at NHPBS's booth Saturday between 1-5 p.m.

10 am

- Salon B Got Calcimine or Other Paint Problems? – John Thompson, JLT Painting
- Salon C/D Barn Preservation Basics – Ian Blackman, Ian Blackman, LLC, Restoration and Preservation

11 am

- Salon B Painted Walls in Jeopardy – Linda Lefko and David Ottinger, The Center for Painted Walls Preservation
- Salon C/D Researching Your House's History – Bill Veillette, former board chair, Preservation Alliance

12 noon

- Salon B What Do I Have? Assessing Your Building Before Work Begins – Steve Bedard, Bedard Preservation & Restoration (Part 1 of 2)
- Salon C/D Tips and Tricks for Growing Flowers Your Grandparents Grew – and Maybe Their Grandparents, Too – Henry Homeyer, garden commentator and author

1 pm

- Salon B Beyond Your Old House: A Conversation about Community Landmark Preservation Projects and Community Preservation Planning Strategies – Andrew Cushing, N.H. Preservation Alliance, George Born, Land and Community Heritage Investment Program and Megan Rupnick, NH Division of Historical Resources
- Salon C/D The Old House Speaks: Learning to Read the Physical Evidence – Dr. James L. Garvin, retired State Architectural Historian

2 pm

- Salon B Safe Practices for Dealing with Lead in Your Older Home – Cole Stanton, Fiberlock Technologies
- Salon C/D Adding 21st Century Comfort and Convenience in Your Old Building while Retaining its Historic Features – Steve Bedard, Bedard Preservation & Restoration (Part 2 of 2)

3 pm

- Salon B Marrying Old New England Architecture with Clean Solar Energy – Jeff Cantara, ReVision Energy
- Salon C/D Discovering New England Stone Walls – Kevin Gardner, stone mason, author and teacher

Schedule subject to change.

Contact the Preservation Alliance at 603-224-2281 or projects@nhpreservation.org

Demonstrations and Educational Sessions SUNDAY, MARCH 25, 2018

No pre-registration needed

All sessions are first come first served

9 am – 5pm

Show floor On-going Demonstrations – Traditional Arts Demonstrations - Heritage Based Music from New England, Chair Seat Weaving and more

Salon A On-going Demonstrations – Timber Framing, Stone Wall Building and Wood Turning and Hand Tool Use

Above demonstrations sponsored by the NH State Council on the Arts

10 am

Salon B Debunking Myths about Old Wood Windows --Dave Bowers, Window Preservation Alliance

Salon C/D Affordable, Appropriate Old House Care: Preservation Dos and Don'ts – Sally Zimmerman, Historic New England

11 am

Salon B Real Estate and Insurance Strategies Session – David Deysher, Historic & Distinctive Properties and Mike Bertalone, Farm Family Insurance

Salon C/D Conversation with N.H. Authors Joe Monninger, John Clayton and Howard Mansfield about Place and Preservation

12 noon

Salon B Historic Masonry Preservation –John Wastrom

Salon C/D History of Timber Framing– Jim DeStefano, structural engineer, architect and author of Antique New England Homes and Barns

1 pm

Salon B Getting Started: Working with an Architect and/or Contractor Tracy Kozak, AIA

Salon C/D House Histories: How to Research the Evolution of Your House– Andrew Cushing, N.H. Preservation Alliance, and Mae Williams, preservation consultant

2 pm

Salon B Made in the Shade: Historic Porches and the Keys to Their Preservation – Gillian Lang, Historic New England

Salon C/D A Chef's Vintage Kitchen: Before and After -- Liz Barbour, Creative Feast and Sue Booth, Vintage Kitchens

3 pm

Salon B The New "Old": Mid-Century Homes and Preservation- Reagan Ruedig, Preservation Company and Lisa Mausolf, LM Preservation

Salon C/D Barn Preservation Information and Inspiration: A celebration of barn owners from our 52 Barns in 52 Weeks campaign and others too!– Ian Blackman, Ian Blackman, LLC, Restoration and Preservation, Beverly Thomas, N.H. Preservation Alliance and others

Schedule subject to change.

Contact the Preservation Alliance at 603-224-2281 or projects@nhpreservation.org