THE CURACY PROGRAM

St. Peter's Anglican Church in Tallahassee, Florida offers a one-year curacy to recent seminary graduates who intend to pursue ordination in the Anglican Church of North America [ACNA]. The curate will serve on the staff of St. Peter's Anglican Church for one year, during which time he or she will undertake supervised parish ministry.

The curate will be fully involved in the life of the parish, sharing in the work of teaching, preaching, pastoral care, and liturgy, while being involved in a supervised program of formation. The purpose of the curacy is to provide recent seminary graduates with a deep experience of parish ministry, in a supervised setting. The Curacy Program is a yearlong internship, intended to provide recent seminary graduates with further formation.

Features of the Curacy Program will include:

- A stipend of $15,000.00. St. Peter's Anglican Church will arrange part-time employment for the curate, at an enterprise outside of St. Peter's. This work will require 20 hours per week.
- Housing: St. Peter's Anglican Church will provide housing.
- Ministry: The curate will engage in the full range of parish ministry, under the guidance of a supervisor. This work will require 20 hours per week.
- A lay mentor: The curate, in addition to working with a clergy supervisor, will also have at least one lay mentor.

Period of curacy: August 2016 to August 2017.

Who should apply? Candidates for the curacy should have just graduated from seminary, be committed to parish ministry, and intend to seek ordination in an ACNA diocese.

St. Peter's Anglican Church is the Pro-Cathedral of the Gulf Atlantic Diocese of the ACNA and has a staff of five priests and a professional staff of 21. To learn more about St. Peter's, go to www.stpeterstallahassee.org.
