

WHO THE HECK DO I INVITE?

a handy dandy flow chart on who to invite to your wedding*

* If you find yourself arguing with this chart, saying things like "NO! But, I totally need to invite so-and-so"...then do it, invite them! This chart is not the boss of you. It is meant to be a helpful little guide to get started on your guest list. The main takeaway from this should be to ask yourself, do I want this person at my wedding? Trust your gut and do what is best for you and your partner. xo
