

THE CATHEDRAL OF ALL SAINTS
IN THE CITY AND DIOCESE OF ALBANY

CHORAL SERVICES

2016 — 2017

ABOUT THE CHOIR

ESTABLISHED in 1872, THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR OF MEN AND BOYS is the oldest continuously performing choir of its kind in the country. As the principal choir of THE CATHEDRAL OF ALL SAINTS, the Choir of Men and Boys sings choral services in the Cathedral during the academic term. The choir enjoys an international reputation for musical excellence and acts as a vital link to the ancient choral traditions of England and Europe, all the while remaining distinctly American. In addition to its liturgical role, the choir is heard regularly in concert and has performed with The Albany Symphony, The Boston Symphony, and at The Tanglewood Music Festival. In recent years, the choir has made three tours of England, having completed one in February 2011, where it sang services at Hereford and Gloucester Cathedrals.

The choir is made up of trebles (boys ages 7-14 with unchanged voices) who sing the soprano line, while a dedicated group of professional men sings the alto, tenor and bass parts. Boys rehearse twice weekly during the academic term, with the gentlemen joining them once each week for musical preparation. Choristers come from all parts of the Capital region, reflecting many backgrounds, faiths, and cultures. The quality of their music making, coupled with their uncommon dedication to excellence, has helped make The Cathedral Choir of Men and Boys 'Albany's Boy Choir' for 145 years.

The choristers are trained according to the standards set forth by THE ROYAL SCHOOL OF CHURCH MUSIC. As they move through the training scheme, choristers earn ribbons of various colors representing their rank in the ensemble. The boys not only work hard, but they also play hard. Choir parents organize weekly dinners for the full choir, and the boys enjoy regular non-musical outings, giving them a chance to enjoy a lighter social side of the chorister experience.

Do you know a boy who likes to sing? Please tell him about the choir. The Director of Music, Woodrow Bynum, is always happy to meet with prospective choristers and their families. Auditions are held throughout the year by appointment, and no previous musical training is necessary or expected. For more information, contact the Director of Music or call 518-423-6779.

CATHEDRAL CHORAL SCHOLARS

THE Cathedral Choral Scholars are a group of former trebles who sing among the gentlemen of the choir in weekly rehearsals and services and attend regular coaching sessions to develop further the skills they gained as trebles. A boy's singing career is never over when his voice changes, and the newly founded Choral Scholars Program encourages these young men as they transition to singing alto, tenor, and bass parts in the Cathedral Choir. For more information about the Choral Scholars Program at the Cathedral, contact Woodrow Bynum, Director of Music.
