

For mentors and observers

Kronborg

One of the excursions for mentors and observers will go to the impressive castle Kronborg in the town of Helsingør north of Copenhagen. The castle has played a central role in Danish and Swedish history through centuries.

Holger Danske (Holger the Dane) is sleeping in the basement of the castle, but in the case of a critical emergency for the Danish people he will rise to the occasion and conquer the enemies.

You can read more about Kronborg here:

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kronborg>