

THE CD 100... WHO ARE THEY?

This is a group of people who feel called by God into cross-cultural missions as a vocation and are pursuing that calling. It is a networking of persons within the Central District of the C&MA for the purpose of staying connected, receiving encouragement and wisdom in 'next steps', getting answers or responses close to home, and going on record as to God's purpose in one's life, thus providing accountability. Members must be no younger than juniors in high school.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF BELONGING?

- Access to someone with answers about the process of serving with the C&MA
- Opportunity to meet and network with others in the same process
- Annual "Follow the Call" retreat heavily discounted
- Availability of coaching/mentoring
- Prayer support of district family

THE CENTRAL DISTRICT 100

We are looking for:
One hundred Young adults...
Called | Committed
Cross-cultural | Central District

ARE YOU ONE OF THEM?

REQUIREMENTS:

- Sense God's call to overseas ministry, and express such to others.
- Be taking steps toward fulfilling this call (actively serving in ministry in the local church or college campus, majoring in a relevant area, etc.).
- Be no younger than a junior in high school.
- Complete this application form and submit it to the District Missions Mobilizers, who will contact you for an interview.
- Have recommendations of local church pastor/ leadership.
- Recruit at least two prayer partners from local friends/family.
- Be willing to attend an annual "Follow the Call" or other training/encouraging type event for this group of people.
- Create a profile with the C&MA Candidate Development Office at www.called2serve.org.
- Be open to coaching/mentoring.
- Understand that the information on the application may be shared with others who want to help in the process.

People "graduate" from the list when they leave for a missions opportunity or no longer meet the qualifications above.
