Hello,

The Alameda Contra Costa Chapter of The Links, Incorporated (ACCL) invites you to become a sponsor of “Afternoon Delight,” a fundraiser to support ACCL’s community programs which target underserved and low-income youth and families in Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

Afternoon Delight will take place on Saturday, October 14, 2017, from 1-4pm, at the Greek Orthodox Cathedral of the Ascension in Oakland. This event will be a multi-faceted opportunity for our guests to learn about the work and community impact of ACCL as they enjoy delectable food and beverages, participate in a live and silent auction, and experience an exclusive wine tasting.

The Links, Incorporated, founded in 1946, is one of the oldest and largest volunteer service organizations of women committed to enriching, sustaining, and supporting the culture and economic survival of African Americans and other persons of African ancestry. The Links, Incorporated has more than 14,000 members who are professional women of color, across 284 chapters in 41 states, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of the Bahamas. The Links, Incorporated delivers transformational programming to serve the community through five focus areas: Services to Youth, Health and Human Services, National Trends and Services, International Trends and Services, and The Arts.

Alameda Contra Costa Chapter of the Links, Incorporated boasts membership of 50 dynamic professional women who live in Alameda and Contra Costa counties. Through volunteer and in-kind services, as well as financial contributions, we support local service agencies that serve primarily low-income, inner city youth and their families including: Martin Luther King, Jr. Elementary School, St. Leo the Great School, and the East Oakland Youth Development Center (EOYDC). Over the past 32 years, ACCL has facilitated anti-bullying and financial literacy workshops for elementary school students, presented self-esteem and career preparation workshops to victims of human trafficking, and continued our longstanding “Links to Living” book club at the EOYDC. ACCL’s award winning annual Respect Yourself Youth Symposium has brought together students from our partner agencies and industry and community leaders for transformational seminars on topics including STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Math), mental and physical health and wellness, educational readiness, and more.

Now more than ever, we must empower our youth and community through exposure and access to programs focused on promoting success. We invite you to join us in this effort by sponsoring Afternoon Delight. Three hundred guests will be invited to this event, and hundreds more will be aware of your support through our promotional materials.

Upon review of the sponsorship options that follow, please email Simone Davis at simone.o.davis@gmail.com to confirm your commitment. We thank you in advance for partnering with our committed members to make a positive impact in the communities where we live and that we serve!

Sincerely,

Simone Davis
