

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 14, 2017

Contact: Deborah Ronnen
(585) 218 9124
deborahronnen@gmail.com
minimalmostly.com

Deborah Ronnen Fine Art presents

MINIMAL MOSTLY

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK - Deborah Ronnen Fine Art presents MINIMAL MOSTLY, a pop-up exhibition of work by artists who developed and formalized the concepts of minimal art. The exhibition will open at R1 Studios on May 12th and run through June 30th. This exhibition is free and open to the public.

MINIMAL MOSTLY will include examples of work by these Masters of Minimal: Anni Albers, Josef Albers, Agnes Martin, Ellsworth Kelly, Sol LeWitt and recently-completed prints by the 101-year-young Carmen Herrera. Featuring objects in a variety of media: painting, print, multimedia, sculpture, and photo-based work, the exhibit will examine the stylistic varieties within Minimalism as well as its continued influence on visual art today by younger artists committed to the practice.

LOCATION R1 Studios
1328 University Ave, Suite B

OPENING Friday, May 12, 5-9PM

RUN OF SHOW May 12 - June 30

OPEN HOURS Thur, Fri, & Sat, 1-7PM

Sol LeWitt, Horizontal Color Bands and Vertical Color Bands, Plate #01, 1991

PUBLIC PROGRAMING

Film: On Sunday, May 14th, at 3PM, The Little Theater will screen a documentary on the life of Carmen Herrera, The 100 Years Show, directed by Alison Klayman. A discussion with Deborah Ronnen and Rachel Haidu, Associate Professor of Art History at the University of Rochester will follow.

Lecture: On Sunday, June 4th, at 2PM, Cathleen Chaffee, PhD, Senior Curator at the Albright-Knox Art Gallery will speak on the history of Minimal Art at the Memorial Art Gallery of the University of Rochester.

Film: On Sunday, June 11th, at 2PM, The Dryden Theater at the George Eastman Museum will present Sol LeWitt, directed by directed by Chris Teerink, a documentary on the practice of Sol LeWitt.

Event: On Friday, June 16th, from 7 to 10PM, at R1 Studios, Deborah Ronnen Fine Art and BOA Editions will present an evening of Minimalism in poetry and music with DJ Father Time.

DEBORAH RONNEN FINE ART

A private dealer for more than 30 years, Deborah Ronnen has been dedicated to exhibiting and promoting contemporary and modern art. With special expertise in contemporary photography and works on paper, she has been instrumental in working with clients to build important collections of art. Solo exhibitions have included Pablo Picasso, Jasper Johns, Robert Motherwell, Sol LeWitt, Adam Fuss, Vik Muniz, and Alison Saar.

###