Please join us in the Pavilion between the morning services for a time of fellowship and coffee and where you'll be able to obtain more information about our upcoming events!

Bountiful Blessings

Bountiful Blessings is a ministry that assists people in our church family that are going through trials (surgery, illness, death/loss, etc.) with a meal a few times a week. Volunteers may schedule a time to bring a meal (home-cooked OR picked up from a local eatery) that fits their schedule. Those who sign up to help will be emailed when a need arises. All signups are done on a secure website. It is a simple and efficient way to help others while not over-committing yourself. You can volunteer just once a month or as much as you feel led. YOU WILL BE BLESSED by helping one of our family members in this simple, but meaningful way.

Please contact Carol Eng or Kerri Schaefer to sign up to be put on the list of Bountiful Blessings volunteers. This is a big ministry and we can use some extra hands!

DivorceCare Ministry

Are you, or someone you know, going through a separation or divorce? Over the years, DivorceCare has reached out to many brokenhearted people, befriending and praying for them daily, knowing that the real place their healing will come from is the Lord.

Each Thursday evening at 7:00, we meet in the Bible House Lounge and view a video from the DivorceCare series. These deal with a wide-range of topics from a Christian perspective. We cannot underestimate the need for healing before moving on from a divorce. Also, during this time, we hold a DivorceCare4Kids program in room Y-135. For more information, please contact John and Babe Fonterosa.
