- Our family has a financial concern and would like to request a scholarship to participate.

SIGNATURES

We, _____ the parents of _____, confirm that the information is true and we are seeking a request for our student not to participate in the competitive marching band program due to the listed reasons. We understand that this does not exempt our child from participating in football games, pep-rallies, concerts or any other band engagement beyond the competitive marching component of the program. We understand that any information given to mislead the school district or its directors could mean immediate removal from the band program.
