Thousands of Seattleites Voted to Select the Winners of the Expanded 2nd Annual Heart of Seattle Awards

6 winning sustainable businesses to be revealed at Seattle Center on April 11th, 2018.

April 5, 2018. (Seattle, WA) The Seattle sustainable business community gathers once again on April 11th at Seattle Center to honor a select group of local businesses who are leading their sector in sustainable business products and practice. Over 870 Seattle businesses were nominated and finalists were chosen based on scores earned from a rigorous application based on sourcing criteria developed by Chinook Book and the highly regarded B Corp Quick Impact Assessment, with help from a select panel of sustainable business experts.

Six winners have been selected by public vote and will be revealed at the 2018 Heart of Seattle Awards on April 11th at 5:30 pm at the Seattle Center Fisher Pavilion.

The event is invitation-only and features chef creations and craft beverages from over 25 local farm-to-table purveyors. An exclusive EnviroStars VIP Reception starts at 5:30 pm for select partners and the press. Doors open to other invited guests at 6:30 pm.

"Sustainability is about so much more than just making environmentally friendly purchasing decisions," explains Mariah DeLeo, Seattle Market Director for Chinook Book, "It comes from a place of deliberate commitment to the health and well-being of the people in our community and the places where we live. This year's Heart of Seattle Award winners demonstrate that they can achieve business success while leading with their values."
