1. PRINCIPLES

   (a) This document sets out the policy for managing Cultural Advice to ensure the proper making of cultural decisions by the [XYZ] Aboriginal Corporation (Corporation). To ensure the highest level of Cultural Advice is secured, we adopt the following set of principles:

   (i) Access and Equity – we will ensure that there is fairness and inclusiveness through access and equity for all groups;

   (ii) Transparency – our processes will be transparent and open;

   (iii) Accountability – we will be accountable for our actions and our decisions;

   (iv) Consistency – our processes and decision making will be consistent;

   (v) Scale – our processes will be relevant to the scale of the task;

   (vi) Manage conflicts of interest – at all times we will declare and manage any conflicts of interest;

   (vii) Timeliness – we will act in a timely manner for the benefit of all parties; and

   (viii) Efficiency – our processes will be efficient and will provide community and cultural benefits.

2. CULTURAL VALUES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1 Customary Law

   (a) We acknowledge, value, honour and respect our Noongar customary law and culture. Our customary law designates us as the custodians of our country, which means we have responsibilities to our country that we need to meet.

2.2 People for Country

   (a) We acknowledge and accept that through our Lore our families are connected to specific areas of land and have traditional and custodianship responsibilities of those lands and waters.

   (b) When seeking Cultural Advice and making cultural decisions, we will ensure that the people for country are consulted.

2.3 Acknowledging Knowledge Holders

   (a) The people who possess knowledge of a place or area of country are of importance. We acknowledge that we need to incorporate all our cultural knowledge in our decisions and advice. By including all knowledge holders we ensure that we meet our responsibilities to country in the best way possible.
2.4 The Sharing and Passage of Knowledge

(a) Our culture and customs have been inherited from our ancestors. We will endeavour to share knowledge both with our countrymen and countrywomen and with our next generation.

(b) We have a duty to protect our cultural knowledge from unauthorised use.

2.5 Inclusion

(a) We acknowledge that to be strong, to make good decisions, and to fulfil our cultural obligations, we must work together as families and as a People. Our approach is to be inclusive when we provide Cultural Advice and make decisions.

2.6 Respect

(a) We are a proud and strong nation of people, who respect each other in accordance with our Lore.

3. SCOPE

(a) This policy applies to the Corporation which, in its day to day activities, must make a variety of decisions about lands and waters to meet the obligations of the ILUA. Many of these decisions will affect the Cultural Interests of the Wagyl Kaip & Southern Noongar Agreement Group. These decisions are called ‘Corporate Cultural Decisions’ in the Rule Book of the Corporation (Rule Book).

(b) The Corporation does not have authority over the general cultural affairs of the community. The Corporate Cultural Decisions relate strictly to some of the decisions the Corporation must make to meet its obligations in the Wagyl Kaip & Southern Noongar Indigenous Land Use Agreement (ILUA).

(c) To comply with the ILUA, the Rules of the Corporation must set out that:

(i) The Corporation must establish and regularly update the Cultural Advice Policy (Policy) and must be consistent with the Rule Book;

(ii) The Policy must establish a process for identifying people with Cultural Authority from which Cultural Advice can be taken;

(iii) The process for identifying people with Cultural Authority needs to take into account law and custom, who is connected to the country affected and who has knowledge of the country affected, as well as the scale of the decision (i.e. is it a small or large area);

(iv) The Corporation is required to give reasonable assistance to people with Cultural Authority to provide Cultural Advice;

(v) The Policy must be endorsed by the Agreement Group.
4. POLICY PROTOCOLS

(a) Protocols are ethical principles which guide behaviour in a particular situation. These protocols are designed to protect Noongar cultural and intellectual property rights.

(b) The protocols pave the way for improving working relationships between Noongar people and their potential partners and consequently for achieving better outcomes. Cultural and intellectual property rights include the right for Noongar people to:

(i) own and control their cultural and intellectual property;

(ii) decide the means of protecting their cultural and intellectual property;

(iii) be recognised as the primary authorities who interpret their cultures and who regulate how their stories and information are presented;

(iv) maintain the secrecy of their knowledge and other cultural practices;

(v) be given full and proper acknowledgement for sharing their heritage; and

(vi) control the recording of cultural customs and expressions, the particular language which may be intrinsic to cultural identity, knowledge, skill and teaching of culture.

5. PARTIES TO THE POLICY

(a) This policy applies to:

(i) Employees of the Corporation;

(ii) Employees of the Central Services Corporation (CSC); and

(iii) Members of the Corporation.

(iv) Directors

6. PURPOSE AND INTENT OF THIS POLICY

(a) This Policy has been prepared to:

(i) enable the Corporation to meet the obligations of the ILUA and its rules;

(ii) set out the principles and values through which the Corporation and the Noongar members of the Agreement Group need to engage with the process;

(iii) articulate the specific areas and types of decisions that this Policy governs;
(iv) set out the considerations that need to be taken into account in cultural decision making;
(v) articulate a process to follow in identifying those people with Cultural Authority; and
(vi) articulate a process or processes to gain the required Cultural Advice from the identified people.

7. PROCESS FOR SEEKING CULTURAL ADVICE

7.1 Heritage Surveys

It is understood that all land is culturally important to Noongar people regardless of its history, tenure or current condition. Protecting Noongar heritage is an important part of maintaining Noongar culture. Noongar heritage is of immense cultural, scientific, educational and historic interest to the whole community. It provides Noongar people of today with an important link to their present and past culture.

Places that are significant for Noongar people can be fragile and therefore easily damaged. Once they are destroyed or damaged, that part of Noongar culture is lost forever. It is important to identify key knowledge holders for Cultural Advice to ensure that Noongar heritage is protected as much as possible.

(a) On many occasions the Corporation or the CSC will receive requests seeking Cultural Advice or instructions on heritage related matters.

(b) The Corporation may receive requests:

(i) through the Noongar Standard Heritage Agreement (NSHA) in the form of an Activity Notice;
(ii) from a proponent seeking advice or information on how to consult with Noongar people (without NSHA);
(iii) from a Noongar community member identifying a heritage issue; or
(iv) from a Heritage Consultant.

(c) There is no single tool that can be employed which will provide a simple instruction on how to gain Cultural Advice or from whom to seek it; rather a proper process relies on the application of two sets of knowledge:

(i) Application of research base

Information/evidence has been gathered through the research process conducted by the South West Aboriginal Land and Sea Council (SWALSC) and other organisations. This Noongar knowledge base is critical in being able to identify those with Cultural Authority and therefore being able to provide Cultural Advice to the Corporation.
(ii) Application of Community Knowledge

Community knowledge of families, their knowledge, and their connection to the survey area is of particular importance. In addition, a careful mediation process is necessary to work through what is effectively a cultural discussion to establish who has the legitimacy to provide the Cultural Advice.

(d) Each contact or correspondence needs to be assessed and an appropriate follow up action implemented (see Appendix 5 – Heritage Survey Selection Process).

7.2 Ceremonial Engagement

Requests for Noongar ceremonial engagement in events such as conferences, functions or meetings happen frequently. Each engagement may consist of a single speech (in language or English or both); it may include a cultural performance (a song or dance); or it may be a combination of these.

(a) Noongar cultural protocols take into consideration age, gender and family lineage under Noongar law and custom. Noongar cultural protocols are to be observed as sacred and any digression is considered a breach of custom.

(b) When providing cultural ceremonial services, such as ‘welcome to country’, artistic performances and songs, Noongar people are using their intellectual property. In line with standard practices, a form of payment is to be made either to individuals or to the Corporation for providing such a service (see Appendix 6 – Procedure of Noongar Ceremonial Engagement).

7.3 Other Decisions

Other areas and types of decisions governed this Policy may be added from time to time.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

(a) Some Noongar material is unsuitable for public scrutiny. Noongar people have the right to keep their sacred and ritual knowledge secret in accordance with their customary laws. Secret and sacred material refers to information that is restricted under customary law and therefore unsuitable for publication.

(b) If in particular circumstances secret and sacred material is to be published prior written consent needs to be obtained from appropriate cultural authorities and approvals and permissions granted need to be displayed.

(c) Privacy and confidentiality agreements concerning Noongar people’s personal affairs are also to be respected. It is necessary to consult with Elders and/or other Noongar people in authority to identify any sensitive, sacred or religious issues that might prevent use of particular material. Some types of personal information may require special caution.

(d) Some images and knowledge may be gender-specific and may only be seen and obtained by men or women in accordance with the appropriate consultation and/or communication procedures. APPENDICES

APPENDIX 5

Interim Procedure of Heritage Survey Selection Process (pre-incorporation)

Phase 1: Contact or receipt of correspondence

(a) Each contact or correspondence needs assessment:
   (i) request through Noongar Standard Heritage Agreement (NSHA) in form of an Activity Notice

(b) In relation to a heritage survey matter, establish whether the proponent has entered into a NSHA – protocol to be followed, including Activity Notice Process.

(c) If the proponent is required to enter into a NSHA, or elects to do so, a formal legal process is to be undertaken. The NSHA on execution by the parties is entered into the NSHA Register. The formal process includes:
    (i) entering into consultation and arrangements for NSHA;
    (ii) drafting of NSHA;
    (iii) endorsement of final draft NSHA via letter;
    (iv) execution of NSHA; and
    (v) entering NSHA onto the NSHA Register.

(d) The Senior Legal Officer is responsible for the coordination of establishing and entering into NSHAs.

(e) Request from a proponent seeking advice or information on how to consult with Noongar people (without NSHA):
    (i) obtain a detailed description of the project and request further information (work program, timeframe and maps). Refer to the DAA Due Diligence Guidelines and discuss whether the proposed activity is ground disturbing and level of impact. Encourage proponent to enter into a NSHA where applicable. If the proponent is willing to enter into a NSHA it could do for all future projects;
    (ii) assess if heritage issues exist; and
    (iii) discuss heritage survey selection process as applicable.

(f) Noongar community member calling to alert to a heritage issue:
   (i) Discuss and gather details of heritage issue;
   (ii) Follow up with entity that is undertaking relevant activity.

(g) Assess if further action is required.

(h) Request from Heritage Consultant:
   (i) discuss details of proposed activity and whether a NSHA has been entered into;
   (ii) discuss request for heritage survey; and
   (iii) discuss timeframes.

Phase 2: Management of Heritage Matter

(a) Management of the heritage matter will depend on the issue and activity required. Activities can be defined as follows:

(i) whether a heritage survey process is required;

(ii) whether a submission is to be lodged;

(iii) whether further consultation is required; or

(iv) whether a request to enter into a NSHA needs following up.

(b) Request for Heritage Survey:

(i) the Regional Corporation (RC) or Central Services Corporation (CSC) does not coordinate or conduct heritage surveys – they are undertaken by a heritage service provider on behalf of the proponent;

(ii) the RC or CSC seeks Cultural Advice to identify the appropriate people who speak for and have knowledge of country as a recommendation to the proponent for participation in the heritage survey. Under the NSHA eight participants are required for the survey process. The RC or CSC provides the proponent with a list of names, usually more than eight names for the proponent to make their selection. A fee is charged for the service;

(iii) prior to undertaking a Seeking Cultural Advice process the proponent must in writing agree to the service.
