

Certification

Why Is Certification Important?

ACGCCB Certification assures that Clergy and Lay Ministers possess high standards of training, competency, skills, and knowledge. This enables people with compulsive gambling problems to have confidence that they have individuals qualified to provide the very best first responder care to persons affected directly or indirectly by problem gambling.

National Level Certification

The American Compulsive Gambling Counselor Certification Board (ACGCCB) now provides a process for recognizing and certifying clergy and other faith-based workers who are proficient in gambling addiction prevention education, awareness, supportive outreach, and non-clinical care. With specialized training leading to certification, knowledgeable clergy/lay ministers can offer guidance, educational materials, support, hope, spiritual care, and help lead people to certified gambling counselors and recovery support groups.

Q&A

How do I start the process of certification?

There is a $50 administrative fee to start the application process.

Make check payable to ACGCCB and send - with a request for application - to:
