

25 fun kid-friendly ideas for summer

Create your own summer of fun with these 25 fun kid-friendly ideas for a laid back and boredom-free summer!

Create a rainy day jar with ideas that everyone contributes to. Take turns pulling out an activity when you need a rainy day idea.

Catch fireflies and roast marshmallows. Fun at any age!

Walk in the rain.

Map out a walking path and finish at a new ice cream place.

Join a book club at the library. Challenge yourself to read more than you ever have.

Go kayaking or canoeing.

Build an obstacle course with your friends. Any level.

Learn something that's a little more unusual. Ride a unicycle or learn to juggle.

25 fun kid-friendly ideas for summer

Go mini-golfing.

Plan a treasure hunt with maps and prizes. Older siblings can organize this for others.

Write your own play and put on a production in your yard. Plan costumes, create a poster, make tickets.

Going on a road trip? Have your kids find interesting stops along the way, and stop there to explore.

Check out a planetarium.

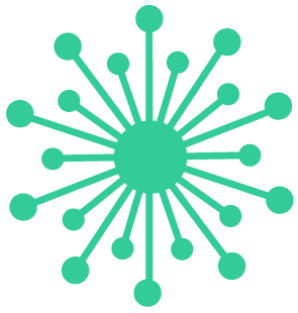

Plan international night dinners together. Have kids create a playlist to go along with food from that country. Make it festive!

Make cookies together.

Plan local historical day trips.

Put together scrapbooks of the past year.

Grow vegetables and flowers. Water, weed, take care of them.

25 fun kid-friendly ideas for summer

Go camping or camp out in the backyard.

Have a lemonade sale.

Make pizza together.

Ride bikes together
in the evening.

Organize a reading club with friends. Read, make a project to share, discuss,
act out a scene...

Start a coin or stamp collection.

Do a jigsaw puzzle.