

WAYFINDER NAVIGATION TOOLKIT

STUDENT NAVIGATION TOOLKIT

In collaboration with Stanford University's d.school, we have thoughtfully designed a 15-piece toolkit to equip students with the skills, knowledge and confidence to become purposeful navigators. The toolkit is composed of a set of beautifully designed paper materials printed on large format, recycled Kraft paper in partnership with our green certified printer.

ACTIVITY SETS AND THE WAYFINDER JOURNEY

Our Wayfinder Navigation Toolkit moves students through the phases of Self-Awareness, World-Awareness, and Empowered Action using a wayfinding metaphor:

- + UNDERSTANDING MY ISLAND // SELF-AWARENESS
Five exercises designed to encourage students to look into themselves to understand who they are and what they value. Topics covered include: exploring our past, understanding our values, developing wayfinder characteristics, deepening gratitude, and learning to center ourselves.
- + PREPARING FOR THE JOURNEY // WORLD-AWARENESS
Five exercises designed to help students turn their attention to the world outside of themselves and begin thinking about how they could fit into the larger landscape. Topics covered include: understanding the landscape of our lives, building community, looking at the world's needs, developing empathy and exploring purpose.
- + NAVIGATING THE JOURNEY // EMPOWERED ACTION
Five exercises to empower students to think about how they can put what they have learned into practice and embark on meaningful projects. Topics covered include: understanding your "shoulds", leaning into fear, exploring your "why", navigating challenges, trying new things.

All of our materials are printed on large format recycled Kraft paper in partnership with our green certified printer. Read more on our 'Student Toolkit' section of our website.
